

EAST – WEST DIALOGUES

An inter-religious encounter

CHAPTER ONE

RELIGION IS ONE

Rev. Hart:

Last time we spoke, you quoted a biblical verse: "All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine..." (II Timothy 3.16-17). Frankly, as you might remember, I had some trouble with your interpretation. You were using this verse to show that a Christian might potentially use the sacred books of the East, the Vedic literature, to understand the Absolute Truth. While this may be true - the books of the East can be used - I don't think that you can use this New Testament quote to substantiate this view. Still, your argument was not without merit. You reasoned that the Vedic literature is also scripture, and the Bible, in this verse, refers to all scripture... But traditionally this verse only refers to Old Testament literature; at least this is the common interpretation. Anyway, after debating with you in this way, I thought about it for quite some time. Why would the Bible say "all scripture" if it merely meant biblical literature? Were the prophets and compilers of the Bible unaware of the Vedic literature, which predates the biblical tradition by many generations? I don't think so. Anyway, I wasn't going to agree with you so easily. I went through my reference library and found a wonderful statement in The Book of Mormon, which, mind you, is a book that I generally have no connection with and rarely ever read.

Satyaraja Dasa:

What did you find?

Rev. Hart:

"Well listen to this. I really liked it quite a bit, although it definitely substantiates your point of view. Let me read it to you:

"Know ye not that there are more nations than one? Know ye not that I, the Lord your God, have created all men, and that I remember those who are upon the isles of the sea; and that I rule in the heavens above and in the earth beneath; and I bring forth My word unto the children of men, yea, even upon all the nations of the earth? Wherefore murmur ye, because that ye shall receive more of My word? Know ye that the testimony of two nations is a witness unto you that I am God, that I remember one nation like unto another? Wherefore, I speak the same words unto one nation like unto another. And when the two nations shall run together, the testimony of the two nations shall run together also...And because I have spoken one word ye need not suppose that I cannot speak another; for my work is not yet finished; neither shall it be until the end of man..."

East West Dialogues:

East - West Dialogues in Philosophy Engin Yurt, Studies of Art Aesthetics and Phenomenology in here there are five studies that work under the thematic title East West Dialogues are present Each study while on one side they focus on a matter that fits the context of their own title one other side they try to problematize reconstruct within and solve an aspect of the 21 century phenomenology has this manner of double investigation makes studies important and useful for the course of history of phenomenology has This manner of double investigation makes the studies important and useful for the course of history of phenomenology by testing its limits and horizons In here by also through the problematization of the phenomenological horizon this can be said it has been tried to carry phenomenology to its next stage or open it in an intellectual and philosophical East West encounter Without succeeding or failing it even the enterprise itself holds essential insight about the path ahead of the phenomenology Nietzsche one said I imagine future thinkers in whom European American indefatigability is combined with the hundred fold inherited contemplativeness of the Asians such a combination will bring the riddle of the world to a solution Maybe with the help of these studies by attaining a bigger picture every reader might have the chance to realize what Nietzsche and others imagined and wished for Of course the whole combination that Nietzsche talked about surely takes more than thousands of companions and hundreds of years in the making But it would be more than enough for this text to at least contribute the process of the combination Philosophical Theology and

East-West Dialogue Hisakazu Inagaki, J. Nelson Jennings, 2021-10-25 Philosophical Theology and East West Dialogue is a unique philosophical and theological analysis of certain key interactions between Eastern and Western thinkers The book on the one hand contrasts general traits of Eastern Buddhist thought and Western Greek thought However in doing so it focuses on influential philosophers and theologians who manifest particular instances of wider issues The result is a careful examination of basic questions that offers both broad implications and concrete specificity in its approach The book itself is an instance of East West dialogue Independently of each other both authors had previously engaged in serious cross cultural studies The Japanese Inagaki had researched Western science and philosophy then written in Japanese comparative studies of Japanese thought The North American Jennings had researched Japanese theology They brought these backgrounds together dialoguing with each other until the present study emerged Several creative Japanese thinkers as well as important Westerners are taken up The study follows the lead of many Eastern impulses but it also critically utilizes Western methods Contemporary thinking on religious plurality is carefully examined This new study is a must for those interested in philosophy and theology in general and East West interaction in particular An East-West Dialogue on Good Governance:

Learning from Each Other Ruiping Fan, Sungmoon Kim, 2024-12-27 This book offers a unique and engaging exploration of the values essential for good governance featuring thought provoking dialogues between esteemed scholars from Eastern and Western backgrounds Going beyond traditional scholarly papers these scholars engage in sincere and enthusiastic conversations sharing heuristic examples captivating personal stories and innovative ethical and cultural perspectives What sets this book apart is the intriguing exchange between Western scholars delving into significant Confucian values such as respect for relationship the family ritual and harmony and Eastern scholars exploring modern Western values like individual rights and equality By examining the implications of these deeply rooted values for contemporary society s governance the book fosters a valuable learning experience between the East and West through engaged dialogues This innovative approach serves as a bridge for cross cultural understanding promoting mutual learning and appreciation The book not only appeals to scholars but also serves as an enlightening reader for individuals interested in human values contemporary governance and cross cultural studies It offers a rich tapestry of insights that provoke critical thinking and contribute to our understanding of the complexities surrounding governance and cultural values in today s world
