Fabricating Jesus Craig A. Evans,2025-06-16 Modern historical study of the Gospels seems to give us a new portrait of Jesus every spring just in time for Easter The more unusual the portrait the more it departs from the traditional view of Jesus the more attention it gets in the popular media Why are scholars so prone to fabricate a new Jesus Why is the public so eager to accept such claims without question What methods and assumptions predispose scholars to distort the record Is there a more sober approach to finding the real Jesus Commenting on such recent releases as Bart Ehrman s Misquoting Jesus James Tabor s The Jesus Dynasty Michael Baigent s The Jesus Papers and the Gospel of Judas for which he served as an advisory board member to the National Geographic Society Craig Evans offers a sane approach to examining the sources for understanding the historical Jesus Tudor and Stuart Proclamations, 1485-1714: Scotland and Ireland James

Every year millions of families are affected by the imprisonment of a family member Children of imprisoned parents alone can be counted in millions in the USA and in Europe It is a bewildering fact that while we have had prisons for centuries and the deprivation of liberty has been a central pillar in the Western mode of punishment since the early nineteenth century we have only relatively recently embarked upon a serious discussion of the severe effects of imprisonment for the families and relatives of offenders and the implications this has for society This book draws together some of the excellent research that addresses the impact of criminal justice and incarceration in particular upon the families of offenders It assembles examples of recent and ongoing studies from eight different countries in order to not only learn about the secondary effects and collateral consequences of imprisonment but also to understand what the experiences and lived realities of prisoners families means for the sociology of punishment and our broader understanding of criminal justice systems While punishment and society scholarship has gained significant ground in recent years it has often remained silent on the ways in which the families of prisoners are affected by our practices of punishment This book provides evidence of the importance of including families within this scholarship and explores themes of legitimacy citizenship human rights marginalization exclusion and inequality The Revised Reports ,1904 The New York Times Index ,1924 Ordinances, Proclamations, Orders-in-council, Etc., for the Year Grenada,1919 The Laws of England ,1909 The Revised Reports Frederick Pollock,Robert Campbell,Oliver Augustus Saunders,Arthur Beresford Cane,Joseph Gerald Pease,William Bowstead,1904
