Bruyere,2006 Credit derivatives and structured credit A Guide for Investors Richard Bruyere with Rama Cont Rgis Copinot Loc Fery Christophe Jaeck and Thomas Spitz Over the past decade credit derivatives have emerged as the key financial innovation in global capital markets At end 2004 the market size hit 6 4 billion in notional amounts from virtually nothing in 1995 This rise has been spurred by the imperative for banks to better manage their risks not least credit risks and the appetite shown by institutional investors and hedge funds for innovative high yielding structured investment products As a result growth in collateralized debt obligations and other second generation products such as credit indices is currently phenomenal It is enabled by the standardization and increased liquidity in credit default swaps the building block of the credit derivatives market Written by market practitioners and specialists this book covers the fundamentals of the credit derivatives and structured credit market including in depth product descriptions analysis of real transactions market overview pricing models banks business models It is recommended reading for students in business schools and financial courses academics and professionals working in investment and asset management banking corporate treasury and the capital markets Highlights include Written by market practitioners and specialists with first hand experience in the credit derivatives and structured credit market A clearly written pedagogical book with numerous illustrations Detailed review of real case transactions A comprehensive historical perspective on market developments including up to date analysis of the latest trends
