James M. Collins, 2009-11-10 This study seeks to demonstrate that exorcism deliverance ministry is an innately enthusiastic practice utilizing John Knox's classic study of Christian enthusiasm The twentieth century provides an ideal arena for such a study since it frames a complete lifecycle for this rite from its infancy during the early decades through its heyday in the 1970s and 80s on to creeping routinisation by the end of the century Two enthusiastic settings Charismatic and Evangelical Fundamentalist are identified and examined as the environment in which two related streams of exorcism deliverance ministry was practiced Finally enthusiastic Sacramentalist exorcism is considered in order to establish the thesis that enthusiastic settings provide a conducive atmosphere for the emergence and practice of exorcism deliverance ministry Attention is paid to historical factors within the Charismatic and Evangelical Fundamentalist streams that underlie the development of this rite As a result important secondary insights are gained into the tidal nature of enthusiastic movements the role of itinerant preachers in the propagation of enthusiasm the routinisation of enthusiastic practices and the manner in which enthusiasm overcomes institutional denominational boundaries The study provides the foundation for future investigation of the manner in which enthusiastic experience is presented for apologetic purposes the relationship between exorcism deliverance ministry and millenarianism and the practice of this rite within non Western churches The Art of Leading in a Borderless World C

Panduranga Bhatta, Pragyant Rath, 2020-09-18 The Art of Leading in a Borderless World is a reflective journey on the significant instances of leadership when leaders were considerate and conscientious about heterogeneity through their focus on what they excluded when including such that the excluded became the vantage point of their focus An attempt is made here to retrace the global instincts long before globalisation was coined as an economic functionality and in that very tracing the work reflects on influential personalities as the harbingers of global philosophies The combinations of texts philosophies and events are uncanny and generate food for thought and even debates within the larger discourse on leadership The authors stress the idea that to survive human beings must consider the holistic and harmonious relationship with the world that they inhabit These considerations must be accommodated along with restating the ideals in a new form in the context of our present day technologies and make them more meaningful by providing a new empathetic framework There are practical examples for corporate leaders as well as political social and community practitioners The book attempts to raise fundamental questions including Is there any need for a leader which will bring in leadership values not limited by borders Rather than dry mechanistic frameworks and axioms this book provides inspiration exemplars and a new paradigm to the building of a sustainable and empathetic culture for leaders across all levels The Sacred Books of the East ,1910
