Demystifying The Monologue:

Demystifying the Monologue Leonard Peters, 2006 A practical roadmap for the actor by looking at a variety of dramatic styles from classical theatre to contemporary voices

Sincerity's Shadow Deborah FORBES, Deborah Forbes, 2009-06-30 In a work of surprising range and authority Deborah Forbes refocuses critical discussion of both Romantic and modern poetry Sincerity's Shadow is a versatile conceptual toolkit for reading poetry Ever since Wordsworth redefined poetry as the spontaneous overflow of powerful feelings poets in English have sought to represent a sincere self consciousness through their work Forbes's generative insight is that this project can only succeed by staging its own failures Self representation never achieves final sincerity but rather produces an array of sincerity effects that give form to poetry's exploration of self In essays comparing poets as seemingly different in context and temperament as Wordsworth and Adrienne Rich Lord Byron and Anne Sexton John Keats and Elizabeth Bishop Forbes reveals unexpected convergences of poetic strategy A lively and convincing dialectic is sustained through detailed readings of individual poems By preserving the possible claims of sincerity longer than postmodern criticism has tended to while understanding sincerity in the strictest sense possible Forbes establishes a new vantage on the purposes of poetry

Table of Contents Introduction 1 The Personal Universal Sincerity as Integrity in the Poetry of Wordsworth and Rich 2 Before and After Sincerity as Form in the Poetry of Wordsworth Lowell Rich and Plath 3 Sincerity and the Staged Confession The Monologues of Browning Eliot Berryman and Plath 4 The Drama of Breakdown and the Breakdown of Drama The Charismatic Poetry of Byron and Sexton 5 Agnostic Sincerity The Poet as Observer in the Work of Keats Bishop and Merrill Conclusion Notes Index From the Conclusion In spite of modern experiments in communal authorship writing poetry remains one of the most individual of acts and yet because it provides the ground upon which the paradoxes of self consciousness can move most freely one of the acts most skeptical about the authority of any individual claim to self understanding In undertaking its experiments poetry may separate itself from certain contexts economic political historical but is itself as local and concrete as these contexts an experience as well as a meditation on our experiences In its particularity its flexibility its sensual and sonic complexity its consideration of the extra rational experiences of pleasure and desire and above all in the ways in which it speaks with both more and less authority more and less presence than an actual human voice poetry offers us the experience of the unknown at the core of proposed self knowledge This is lyric poetry's enduring though not sole claim on us

Voice and the Victorian Storyteller Ivan Kreilkamp, 2005-11-03 The nineteenth century novel has always been regarded as a literary form pre eminently occupied with the written word but Ivan Kreilkamp shows it was deeply marked by and engaged with vocal performances and the preservation and representation of speech He offers a detailed account of the many ways Victorian literature and culture represented the human voice from political speeches governesses tales shorthand manuals and staged authorial performances in the early and mid century to mechanically reproducible voice at the end of the century Through readings of Charlotte Brontë Browning Carlyle Conrad Dickens Disraeli and Gaskell Kreilkamp re evaluates critical assumptions about the cultural meanings of storytelling and shows that the figure of the oral storyteller rather than disappearing among readers preference for printed texts persisted as a character and a function within the novel This 2005 study will change the way readers consider the Victorian novel and its many ways of telling stories American Book Publishing Record ,2006 Postmodern Theatric(k)s Deborah R. Geis,1993 Assesses monologue s postmodern disruptions of linear narrative and character development Labyrinth of Hybridities Marc Maufort,2010 Taking its cue from Eugene O'Neill s questioning of faithful realism voiced by Edmund Tyrone in Long Day s Journey into Night this book examines the distant legacy of the Irish American playwright in contemporary multiethnic drama in the U S It explores the labyrinth of formal devices through which African American Latina o First Nations and Asian American dramatists have unconsciously reinterpreted O'Neill s questioning of mimesis In their works hybridizations of stage realism function as aesthetic celebrations of the spiritual potentialities of cultural in betweenness This volume provides detailed analyses of over forty plays authored by such key artists as August Wilson Suzan Lori Parks Jos Rivera Cherr e Moraga Hanay Geiogamah Diane Glancy David Henry Hwang and Chay Yew to give only a few prominent examples All in all Labyrinth of Hybridities invites its readers to reassess the cross cultural patterns characterizing the history of twentieth century American drama Female Silences, Turkey's Crises Özlem Güçlü,2016-06-22 In the mid 1990s Turkish cinema experienced a remarkable revival However what is particularly unusual about this revival is the emergence of a new representational form silent inaudible characters Equally unusual is the fact that this new on screen silence had a gender ed ing aspect since for the most part the muted characters were female This book focuses on these newly emergent silent female characters in the new cinema of Turkey and explores the relationship between the new female representational form the new cinema of Turkey and the new socio political climate in Turkey after the September 12 1980 military coup It investigates two central questions what are the functions formations and operations of these silent female characters and why did this female representational form emerge specifically in this timeframe Bearing a cinematic function of instrumentality and exposing one way or another a close association between point of view and discursive authority in the films studied the silent female representational form in the new cinema of Turkey is a cinematic symptom of the on going struggle over the disrupted orders of gender nation and national memory due to an increase in thus far silenced or marginalized voices in Turkey The silent form not only functions as a cinematic instrument to reveal crises in hegemonic power positions but also becomes a battleground within a struggle for re obtaining a position of discursive authority in the realms of gender nation and past The silent form in itself becomes an instrument on the discursive level which enables a response to Turkey s crises in these three interconnected realms in the post 1980s Resistance & Recovery in the #MeToo era, Volume II Kate Richmond,Nicole L. Johnson,2024-02-15 Using an intersectional approach this book amplifies

the voices of those who were and continue to be at the frontlines resisting and responding to sexual violence during the rise of digital feminist movements including NoMore TimesUp and most notably MeToo This book outlines the current socio political landscape including increased visibility of movements such as NoMore TimesUp and most notably MeToo and the public showcase of accused perpetrators becoming elected to the highest offices in the United States e g Brett Kavanaugh s election to the Supreme Court Donald Trump s election to the Presidency It offers note to how this political landscape has impacted survivors and therapists alike The second volume include 5 chapters that highlight the experiences of feminist therapists and their therapeutic approaches The chapters in this volume explore the role of technology and digital feminisms on survivor s experience and its influence on therapist and therapeutic interventions Both the volumes together cover a wide range of perspectives that bring to light the solidarity that was built among survivors regardless of identity and experience within the current socio political climate while continuing to center the voices of those who are most often marginalized The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of Women Therapy

Gulag 65 William Plank, 1989 Modern society having evolved in the absence of a large cohort of the aged has developed institutions inimical to their wellbeing Their lives follow the Industrial Christian model of work sacrifice reward Their educations provide them with work skills but not the human resources to preserve their identity in retirement even while retirement becomes an ideology Gerontology presides over the gerontologization of America wherein real wealth and security are replaced by symbols The aged challenging the values of society thus become a class of subversives in an extermination camp

Self & Form in Modern Narrative Vincent P. Pecora, 1989 Unwording the World Carla Locatelli, 1990 This comprehensive study of Beckett s art proposes a doubly contextualized reading of his later works Carla Locatelli reads late Beckett through his previous writings and relates them to the literary philosophical and critical community which surrounds him To appreciate his contribution as an epistemological rhetorician she proposes a multidisciplinary approach that draws upon a remarkably wide range of theorists including Kierkegaard Husserl Heidegger Peirce Jakobson Deleuze Lacan and Derrida In Part One of this study Locatelli traces the evolution of Beckett s writing proposing that his principal concern devolves more and more upon the essential character of representation and its role in the constitution and signification of the subject Part One also provides a history of this thematic showing how Beckett s writing effects a radical displacement of representation from function to object of discourse In Part Two Locatelli focuses on Beckett s fiction after the Nobel Prize of 1969 and on the epistemological and aesthetic issues in Company 1980 Ill Seen Ill Said 1981 and Worstward Ho 1983 She examines his unwording in this Second Trilogy and defines it as a process of subtraction that probes into the most basic mode of our being in the world Here Beckett proposes as Locatelli suggests a very real hermeneutics of experience beyond the schools of suspicion which are still influencing some postmodernist thinking This volume will be of particular value to scholars and students of twentieth century English literature French literature and literary theory
