Doris Lessing Reader The:

The Doris Lessing Reader Doris Lessing, 1989 This reader has been assembled by Doris Lessing herself and it provides a representative introduction to both her fiction and non fiction The book enables the reader to see her ideas evolve over the years as they recur and develop throughout her work The Doris Lessing Reader Doris May Lessing, 1991 The Doris Lessing Reader Doris Lessing, 1990-09-11 Notebooks/Memoirs/Archives Jenny Taylor, 2019-10-01 Since The Grass is Singing was published in 1950 Doris Lessing has commanded a widespread and heterogeneous readership Written from a feminist political perspective and employing diverse modes of critical analysis the present volume originally published in 1982 aims to combine detailed technical exploration of Lessing's work with a sense of this extraordinary writer's historical political and personal development The essays placed in political and biographical context by the editor's introduction span the entire length of Lessing's career up to Canopus in Argos and includes studies of A Man and Two Women The Golden Notebook and The Children of Violence as well as an interview with David Gladwell director of Memoirs of a Survivor

Doris Lessing Susan Watkins, 2013-07-19 This study examines the writing career of the respected and prolific novelist Doris Lessing who was awarded the Nobel Prize for Literature in 2007 and has recently published what she has announced will be her final novel Whereas earlier assessments have focused on Lessing's relationship with feminism and the impact of her 1962 novel The Golden Notebook this book argues that Lessing's writing was formed by her experiences of the colonial encounter it makes use of postcolonial theory and criticism to examine Lessing's continued interest in ideas of nation empire gender and race and the connections between them The book examines the entire range of her writing including her most recent fiction and non fiction which have been comparatively neglected The book is aimed at undergraduate and postgraduate students of Doris Lessing's work as well as the general reader who enjoys her writing This is the first significant book length critical evaluation in ten years Conversations Doris Lessing, 1994 In these twenty four interviews spanning several decades Doris Lessing talks frankly to a variety of interviewers among them Joyce Carol Oates and Studs Terkel about such subjects as her early years in Rhodesia her involvement in Marxism and Sufism her views on feminism and her own fiction especially The golden notebook Doris Lessing Gayle Greene, 1994 An original and compelling appraisal of this important international literary figure Doris Lessing Alice Ridout, Susan Watkins, 2009-08-13 Despite winning the Nobel Prize for Literature Doris Lessing has received relatively little critical attention One of the reasons for this is that Lessing has spent much of her lifetime and her long published writing career crossing both national and ideological borders This essay collection reflects and explores the incredible variety of Lessing's border crossings and positions her writing in its various social and cultural contexts Lessing crosses literal national borders in her life and work but more controversial have been her crossings of genre borders into sci fi and space fiction and her crossing of ideological borders such as moving into and out of the Communist Party and from a colonial into a post colonial world This timely collection also considers a number of the most interesting recent critical and theoretical approaches to Lessing's writing including work on maternity and abjection in relation to The Fifth Child and The Grass is Singing eco criticism in Lessing's Ifrakan novels and postcolonial re-writings of landscape in her African Stories A Reading of The Golden Notebook by Doris Lessing, 1979 Between East and West Müge Galin, 1997-01-01 Considers how Lessing's exposure to a particular aspect of tasawwuf the classical Sufi Way has shaped her work Impresses upon the reader the degree to which Lessing is seriously offering her space fiction utopias as plausible and even necessary alternatives to our present Western ways of life Doris Lessing Dee Seligman, 1981 Product information not available Understanding Doris Lessing Jean Pickering, 1990 Over her 40 year career Doris Lessing has dealt with a variety of themes of extraliterary importance such as race issues colonialism the relations between men and women the consequences of the nuclear arms race the evolution of humanity and of old age Understanding Doris Lessing introduces readers to a body of work that through a variety of techniques attempts to enlarge our understanding of the literary enterprise of history and of humanity's relationship to the universe Included in the discussion are Lessing's earlier works The Grass is Singing Children of Violence The Golden Notebook and her more recent books The Good Terrorist and The Fifth Child Re-reading the Short Story Clare Hanson, 1989-06-18 This collection of essays maintaining links with theory and practice applies a critical approach to the short story form Some are theoretical in orientation covering such issues as gender and marginality while others offer readings of works by writers such as Alice Munro and John McGahern

Reader's Guide to Literature in English Mark Hawkins-Dady, 2012-12-06 Reader's Guide Literature in English provides expert guidance to and critical analysis of the vast number of books available within the subject of English literature from Anglo Saxon times to the current American British and Commonwealth scene It is designed to help students teachers and librarians choose the most appropriate books for research and study Doris Lessing Carey Kaplan, Ellen Cronan Rose, 1988 Long neglected by the academic world because of her rejection of belletristic values and resistance to convenient literary taxonomy Doris Lessing has nonetheless built an international following of serious dedicated readers Acknowledging the difficulties posed by the multiple dimensions of Lessing's work Kaplan and Rose have gathered eleven essays that address her artistic philosophical political and psychological complexity and so provide a welcome introduction to the extraordinary depth and diversity of this important contemporary novelist Lessing has been described as an alchemical writer in that her work is directed toward changing people's lives and perceptions rather than simply recording experience Accordingly the contributors examine her various postures and tactics for the purpose of discovering how the alchemical elements inform her various personae Frederick C Stern discusses Lessing's commitment to radical humanist thought while Carey Kaplan examines how Lessing's imperialist past has shaped her futuristic fiction Elizabeth Abel offers a feminist interpretation of the pattern of brother sister incest in Lessing's work showing how Lessing has established Antigone as a female alternative to the Oedipal myth of male incest Particularly insightful is Eve Bertelsen's report of her interview with

Lessing demonstrating how Lessing's often evasive style of adversarial dialogue works in concert with her refusal to be conveniently pigeonholed by academic analysis For those readers new to her work Doris Lessing's The Alchemy of Survival will serve as a useful introduction to Lessing's concerns and techniques Those who have long admired her writing will find in this collection new keys to understanding Lessing's philosophical, political, and psychological complexity

Doris Lessing's The Golden Notebook After Fifty A. Ridout, R. Rubenstein, S. Singer, 2015-05-20 Published in 1962 Doris Lessing's The Golden Notebook merits fresh theoretical, geopolitical, autobiographical, and aesthetic approaches Prompted by the novel's golden anniversary, the twelve essays collected in this volume provide fresh analyses along with appreciative memoirs for 21st-century readers of this well-known masterpiece

Love, Again Doris Lessing, 2012-01-30 A fierce, compelling account of the nature and origins of love from Doris Lessing, one of the most acclaimed writers of the twentieth century and winner of the Nobel Prize for Literature 2007

Doris Lessing Mona Knapp, 1984 A Reader's Companion to the Short Story in English Erin Fallon, R.C. Feddersen, James Kurtzleben, Maurice A. Lee, Susan Rochette-Crawley, 2013-10-31 Although the short story has existed in various forms for centuries, it has particularly flourished during the last hundred years Reader's Companion to the Short Story in English includes alphabetically arranged entries for 50 English language short story writers from around the world Most of these writers have been active since 1960 and they reflect a wide range of experiences and perspectives in their works Each entry is written by an expert contributor and includes biography, a review of existing criticism, a lengthier analysis of specific works, and a selected bibliography of primary and secondary sources The volume begins with a detailed introduction to the short story genre and concludes with an annotated bibliography of major works on short story theory
