Trouble the Water Frances O'Roark Dowell,2016-05-03 From the award winning author of Dovey Coe comes a powerful School Library Journal tale of the friendship between a black girl and a white boy and the prejudices they must overcome in segregated Kentucky as they try to solve the mystery surrounding a lonely old dog Eleven year old Callie is fearless stubborn and a little nosy So when she sees an old yellow dog wandering around town by itself you can bet she s going to figure out who he belongs to But when her sleuthing leads her to cross paths with a white boy named Wendell who wants to help the segregated town doesn t take too kindly to their budding friendship Meanwhile a nearly invisible boy named Jim is stuck in a cabin in the woods He s lost his dog but can t remember exactly when his pup s disappeared When his companion a little boy named Thomas who s been invisible much longer than he explains that they are ghosts the two must figure out why they can t seem to cross the river to the other side just yet And as Callie and Wendell s search for the old dog brings them closer and closer to the cabin in the woods the simmering prejudices of the townspeople boil over Shooting the Moon Frances

O'Roark Dowell,2009-12-29 When her brother is sent to fight in Vietnam twelve year old Jamie begins to reconsider the army world that she has grown up in The Grand Plan to Fix Everything Uma Krishnaswami,2011-05-24 Rose petal milk shakes and a world of surprises awaits Dini when her family moves to India in this spirited novel with Bollywood flair Eleven year old Dini loves movies watching them reading about them trying to write her own especially those oh so fabulous Bollywood movies where you don't need to know the language to get what's going on But when her mother reveals some big news it does not at all jibe with the script Dini had in mind Her family is moving to India And not even to Bombay which is the center of the filmi universe and home to Dini's all time most favorite star Dolly Singh No they're moving to a teeny tiny town that she can't even find on a map Swapnagiri It means Dream Mountain a sleepy little place where nothing interesting can happen But wait a movie minute Swapnagiri is full of surprises like rose petal milk shakes mischievous monkeys a girl who chirps like a bird and could it be Dolly herself Radical Reads Joni Richards Bodart,2002 Radical young adult fiction can be edgy and raw which is why young adults who read it find it to be very relevant to their lives Teens struggling with issues in today's society can often recognize themselves and identify their problems in the fictional lives they read about There are no easy answers or pat endings in these books They often are accused of being dark gritty and bleak because they deal with subjects like incest teenage pregnancy dysfunctional families gangs prejudice violence drugs or other complex problems Central characters can be quite mature and multidimensional and plot lines are complex These books break boundaries in various ways from the challenge they present to the reader to the voice they give to their young protagonists Radical YA fiction is frequently more complex and better written than many adult bestsellers Bodart long known as the reigning queen of booktalking has identified 101 engaging tough and well written books and presents them in a way that will help the librarian defend their presence in the library or classroom the parent who wants to know what their child is reading and the teen who is looking for a Rad Read Naturally there is a booktalk to pique interest and give away just enough of the story Entries also include character lists and sections on subject areas and major themes Bodart also provides a number of booktalk and book report ideas Her section on risks will alert adults to mature themes while her section on strengths will help defend these books against their critics The author has also included awards won and a section of book reviews which will be useful for both adult and student All the books listed are accessible to readers of middle school ability and up This is truly a multipurpose book from an expert who knows her stuff and essential for any library serving a teen audience and handy for parents as well Lucky Breaks Susan Patron,2009-03-10 Eleven is much more intrepid than only ten On the eve of her eleventh birthday Lucky wants to let loose and become intrepid she's ready for life to change But Hard Pan population 43 drones on like it always has Lincoln all tied up in knotty matters Miles newly diagnosed as a genius but as needy as ever Brigitte running her Caf and trying to figure out what it means to be American Enter Paloma tagging along on a visit to Hard Pan with a pack of hungry geologists She's smart and pretty and fun definitely best friend material But will Lucky be able to cope with tomato worms Short Sammy s mysterious box the potential for disaster when Paloma s parents visit Hard Pan and Lincoln s fame among knot tyers of the world Lucky s intrepidness is put to the test in this satisfying sequel to the Newbery Award winning The Higher Power of Lucky Your Reading Jean E. Brown, Elaine C.
