Beaudreau,1996-10-21 Economists and historians have viewed the events of the 1920s the stock market boom and crash the Great Depression and the New Deal as largely independent events This work provides an integrated view of this important period arguing that all of these events were the result of the electrification of U S industry from 1910 to 1926 The author goes from electrification through the stock market boom to the tariffs of the late 20s to the stock market crash and depression followed by the National Industrial Recovery Act in 1933 The conclusion is that the NIRA is an attempt to correct the imbalance between production and consumption caused by industrial electrification
