Radical Enfranchisement in the Jury Room and Public Life Sonali Chakravarti, 2020-01-24 Juries have been at the center of some of the most emotionally charged moments of political life At the same time their capacity for legitimate decision making has been under scrutiny because of events like the acquittal of George Zimmerman by a Florida jury for the shooting of Trayvon Martin and the decisions of several grand juries not to indict police officers for the killing of unarmed black men Meanwhile the overall use of juries has also declined in recent years with most cases settled or resolved by plea bargain With Radical Enfranchisement in the Jury Room and Public Life Sonali Chakravarti offers a full throated defense of juries as a democratic institution She argues that juries provide an important site for democratic action by citizens and that their use should be revived The jury Chakravarti argues could be a forward looking institution that nurtures the best democratic instincts of citizens but this requires a change in civic education regarding the skills that should be cultivated in jurors before and through the process of a trial Being a juror perhaps
