Down There In Darkness:

Down There In Darkness George Turner, 2018-11-20 Two men one of them a policeman are investigating a death involving a large international genetic engineering corporation They become bothersome to the corporate owners and are taken out of action not by being killed but by being put to sleep for hundreds of years But this may be a fate worse than death They awaken to a distant future in which contemporary industrial civilization has been cleansed from the earth and what humanity survives is learning to live a very low technology lifestyle being bred eugenically to this life This cleaning was done on purpose an international plot by the rich and powerful who in fact rule the world and who in this distant future are dying off This is a complex and morally tortuous vision and Turner's characters find it nearly impossible to adapt without killing someone perhaps even themselves

Vosburg Woods Paula Mills, 2015-03-24 Then something happened that made her catch her breath and place her hand up to her mouth A shoulder came part way out of the darkness Now she knew she was right all along She really had seen something move out of the corner of her eye Then more of the shoulder was revealed and she realized that whoever it belonged to was stepping into the light With a growing fear building inside she held her breath and watched as more and more of the person behind the shoulder got closer It wasn't until a portion of the head moved into the light that a chill shot through her as she finally understood who it was The chill bolted down her spine into her legs making them weak under her Her hand was now clamped across her mouth while the other became clenched into a fist She knew that this wasn't one of the others When the rest of his head had been fully illuminated she realized he had it bowed down showing only the top His long hair looked menacing with its untidy and dirty look She had to squeeze her hand tighter against her mouth to prevent a scream from escaping Then as if in slow motion he lifted his head to reveal his face And there it was His evil smile Even though he was unable to see her while she remained within the darkness of her alcove he continued to stare in her direction As if he could see through the darkness to her This is where he's been waiting for me all along Then his smile turned into a silent laugh as he lifted his arm out of the shadows revealing the knife held firmly in his hand He raised it up high so she could get a good look and then reverted back to his horrid smile She watched intently as he gingerly maneuvered the knife through the air less than an inch from his chest She wasn't sure what to do She was trapped in her alcove Even if by some miracle she was able to make it out of there and down the hallway before he was able to attack her with his knife she surely wouldn't be able to outrun the other especially with her leg slowing her down He's going to come over here and kill me He's showing me his knife so I'll know how he'll do it It was then that he stepped completely out of his alcove and very slowly walked in her direction She froze unable to move as she watched him get closer with each step Then he suddenly stopped A little confused she observed him waiting to see what he would do next He's taunting me standing so close with his knife threatening me with his horrible smile But then while he was standing in the middle of the hallway he turned and looked toward the open door where one of the others was standing And then he walked in that direction

Logsdon,2024-08-12 The World Rejoices combines Scripture reading from the Gospel of Luke with short practical daily reflections to help focus your heart on Jesus throughout the Christmas season Me, the Old Man Bill Reed,2015-03-03 I not only write books I am this book The actual person or persons After a flash flood in 1965 an elderly man became trapped down a Sydney parkland storm drain Children discovered him but did not tell their parents Instead they fed him a biscuit and a little water once a day for three weeks When he was finally rescued the flesh on his legs had become putrescent He could not remember how long he had been down there Bill Reed extends this situation to explore the interaction of innocence and inhumanity that is so prevalent in these days of random violence Here the old man like so many others has come to Australia with all the hopes of regeneration But the sun has not shone on him very much and his brother and sister have disowned him He has had to live in sordid hostels and to endure the barbs of a society that pays respect only to the fittest As his minds drifts the old man dreams he is back home in Belfast He has got beyond the smell of his own rotting flesh and the fleas and rats He no longer feels the cold or works up the desperation to plead with the children to get help He floats mentally waiting for the final water rush of the coming last storm And as he does so the author uses himself as a character to the story as one of the brutalisers the sheer fact of writing about the old man in this terrible state possibly morally aligning him to the teasing torturing children Using Edward Nugent s real writings to give an authentic voice to the old man doesn t help his frame of mind either Bill Reed has been involved in writing and publishing for most of his life in Australia Britain Canada and the Subcontinent He has had nine plays professionally staged and has written thirteen novels including 1001 Lankan Nights books 1 and 2 He has won national awards in playwriting short story and novel categories He now resides in Sri Lanka Edward Nugent was born in Belfast in 1900 and migrated to Australia after WW2 eventually living in a Salvation Army home in Adelaide where his major preoccupations were his manual typewriter and his old fiddle He tragically died in a room fire in
