Choice and Control in American Education John F. Witte, William H. Clune, 1990 The Americas in 1988, 1988

Religion, Race, and the American Presidency Gastón Espinosa, 2008 The role that race and religion play in American presidential elections is attracting national attention like never before Many of the 2008 presidential candidates proactively courted racial and religious voting constituencies including African Americans Latinos Asian Americans Jews Muslims Catholics Evangelicals mainline Protestants women and seculars and the non religious Religion Race and the American Presidency examines some of the reasons why by focusing on the roles of these racial gender and religious groups in presidential politics over the last forty years and in elections from 1996 to 2004 in particular BOOK JACKET Religion, Race, and the American Presidency Gaston Espinosa, 2008-08-22 The role that race and religion play in American presidential elections is attracting national attention like never before The 2008 presidential candidates reached out to an unprecedented number of racial and religious voting constituencies including African Americans Latinos Muslims Mainline Protestants Catholics Evangelicals Jews women the non religious and more Religion Race and the American Presidency focuses on the roles of these racial and religious groups in presidential elections over the last forty years and in elections since 2000 in particular Drawing upon survey data interviews and case studies of recent presidents the contributors examine the complicated relationships between American presidents and key racial and religious groups The paperback edition features a new capstone chapter on the 2008 elections Contributions by Brian Robert Calfano David G Dalin Paul A Djupe Gast n Espinosa John C Green Melissa V Harris Lacewell Lyman A Kellstedt So Young Kim David C Leege Laura R Olson Corwin Smidt Katherine E Stenger and Adam L Warber Choice of Law in Practice Symeon Symeonides, 2020-12-15 This book is a true treasure trove of original research incisive observations and useful practical pointers Written by an author who has read more than sixty thousand conflicts cases in the last thirty years the book skillfully guides American and foreign readers through the labyrinthine alleys of American choice of law litigation and distills the resulting lessons for attorneys academics and lawmakers This is a book about law in action The author reviews the decisions of all American appellate courts in the last twenty years and discusses those that add something new to the development or understanding of conflicts law particularly choice of law It is a daunting task to find an answer to a choice of law question in American law In all states except two and Puerto Rico the answer must be found in the particular state s case law How to find it To evaluate it to compare it with other states law with one s own For over 33 years Professor Symeonides has rendered an enormous service to all segments of the profession courts practitioners academics with his annual survey of virtually all choice of law decisions of American courts most of them thoughtfully annotated and evaluated His surveys proved to be an extraordinary help The present volume consolidates most of these contributions It is enhanced by a new Introduction and a comprehensive Index This consolidated presentation of his expert reviews and commentary is an extraordinary contribution Peter Hay L Q C Lamar

Professor of Law Emeritus Emory University School of Law It is impossible to overstate the value and significance of the Choice of Law Surveys written by Dean Symeon C Symeonides over thirty years These surveys have not only educated law professors and lawyers about changing dynamics in the field of choice of law but they have been instrumental in refining the modern method of analyzing and resolving these cases and have formed the basis for the emerging Third Restatement of Conflict of Laws In all the ways that count Symeonides is the father of choice of law in the twenty first century He deserves our gratitude and respect and our recognition of his pivotal place in the choice of law field Joseph W Singer Harvard Law School Politics, Markets, and America's Schools John E. Chubb, Terry M. Moe, 2011-09-01 During the 1980s widespread dissatisfaction with America's schools gave rise to a powerful movement for educational change and the nation's political institutions responded with aggressive reforms Chubb and Moe argue that these reforms are destined to fail because they do not get to the root of the problem The fundamental causes of poor academic performance they claim are not to be found in the schools but rather in the institutions of direct democratic control by which the schools have traditionally been governed Reformers fail to solve the problem when the institutions ARE the problem The authors recommend a new system of public education built around parent student choice and school competition that would promote school autonomy thus providing a firm foundation for genuine school improvement and superior student achievement The Americas in 1988 Inter-American Dialogue, 1988 The Americas in 1988 Inter-American Dialogue, 1988 Debt Swaps, Development, and Environment Maria Clara Couto Soares, 1992 Latin American Research Review, 1999 The American Liberal Tradition Reconsidered Mark Hulliung, 2010 Eight prominent scholars consider whether Louis Hartz's interpretation of liberalism in his classic 1955 book should be repudiated or updated and whether a study of America as a liberal society is still a rewarding undertaking The Americas in 1988 Inter-American Dialogue (Organization), 1988-07-11 The 1988 report while it finds new impetus for peace in Central America focuses on the problems which still threaten peace and stability throughout the Americas Latin American trade debt drug abuse expanding populations economic depression and political violence in Central America and the continued threat of military intervention in the political affairs of young democracies The Americas in 1988 provides in depth discussion of each of these issues and argues forcefully that cooperative rather than unilateral actions hold the key to addressing these monumental problems Choices in Relationships David Knox, Caroline Schacht, 1991 By applying the text's concepts and participating in exercises such as the text's self assessments you will learn how to approach every intimate relationship with the freedom and responsibility that comes from making educated choices America's Textile Reporter, 1899 American Government Paul E. Johnson, 1990 American National Bank & Trust Company V. City of Chicago, 1986 America's Space Sentinels Jeffrey Richelson, 1999 During much of the Cold War America's first line of defense was in outer space a network of secret satellites that could provide instant warning of an enemy missile launch The presence of these infrared sensors orbiting 22 000 miles above the earth discouraged a Soviet first strike and stabilized international relations between the superpowers and they now play a crucial role in monitoring the missile programs of China India and other emerging nuclear powers Jeffrey Richelson has written the first comprehensive history of this vital program tracing its evolution from the late 1950s to the present He puts Defense Support Program operations in the context of world events from Russian missile programs to the Gulf War and explains how DSP s infrared sensors are used to detect meteorites monitor forest fires and even gather industrial intelligence by seeing the lights of steel mills
