Business and Human Rights Radu Mares, 2004      Transitional Justice and Corporate Accountability from Below Leigh A. Payne, Gabriel Pereira, Laura Bernal-Bermúdez, 2020-04-30 Examines when where why and how corporate accountability for past human rights violations in armed conflicts and authoritarian regimes is possible      International Human Rights David S. Weissbrodt, 2009 This comprehensive work provides an introduction to human rights law policy and process International Human Rights begins with an overview then discusses drafting and ratifying treaties establishing institutions using procedures for monitoring compliance and responding to gross violations using adjudicative remedies applying refugee and international labor law relating human rights norms to terrorism and exploring how the causes of violations can be used to improve human rights compliance The Fourth Edition addresses a number of significant developments in the human rights arena including Emergence of international criminal law as a potential response to crimes against humanity Emergence of the United Nations Security Council as a significant human rights actor and the challenges it faces The role of human rights norms in responding to and regulating state responses to terrorism The capacity of human rights to respond to abuses by corporate actors The ability of human rights to respond to and account for violations committed in the context of ethnic hatred internal conflict and intrastate violence and The challenges faced by non government human rights organizations in the post 9 11 context International Human Rights is also accompanied by a comprehensive documentary supplement Selected International Human Rights Instruments and Bibliography for Research on International Human Rights Law Professor Weissbrodt provides periodic updates to the casebook on the University of Minnesota Human Rights Library Web site <http://www1.umn.edu/humanrts/intlhr> This book also is available in a three hole punched alternative loose leaf version printed on 8 5 x 11 inch paper with wider margins and with the same pagination as the hardbound book      Human Rights, Export Credits and Development Cooperation Barbara Linder, 2019-12-27 This book analyses to what extent the current human rights system allows affected individuals to claim accountability for human rights violations resulting from bilateral development and export credit agency supported undertakings The author explores three legal pathways host state responsibility home state responsibility and corporate responsibility The book concludes with recommendations on how to strengthen human rights accountability and improve access to justice for adversely affected individuals It will be of great interest to those researching the intersection between human rights development cooperation and investment      Corporate Accountability Karin Lukas, Barbara Linder, Astrid Kutrzeba, Claudia Sprenger, 2016-11-25 Whilst many of us would agree that human rights are more important than corporate profits the reality is often different such realities as child labour and environmental destruction caused by corporate activities make this patently clear Recognising that balancing human rights and business interests can be problematic Corporate Accountability considers the limits of existing complaint mechanisms and examines non judicial alternatives for conflict resolution      Common Core Document Forming Part of the Reports of States Parties ,2016     Library & Information Science Abstracts ,2006     Shifting Paradigms in International Investment Law Steffen Hindelang,Markus Krajewski,2016-01-22 International investment law is in transition Whereas the prevailing mindset has always been the protection of the economic interests of individual investors new developments in international investment law have brought about a paradigm shift There is now more than ever before an interest in a more inclusive transparent and public regime Shifting Paradigms in International Investment Law addresses these changes against the background of the UNCTAD framework to reform investment treaties The book analyses how the investment treaty regime has changed and how it ought to be changing to reconcile private property interests and the state s duty to regulate in the public interest In doing so the volume tracks attempts in international investment law to recalibrate itself towards a more balanced less isolated and increasingly diversified regime The individual chapters of this edited volume address the contents of investment agreements the system of dispute settlement the interrelation of investment agreements with other areas of public international law constitutional questions and new regional perspectives from Europe South Africa the Pacific Rim Region and Latin America Together they provide an invaluable resource for scholars practitioners and policymakers The individual chapters of this edited volume address the contents of investment agreements the system of dispute settlement the interrelation of investment agreements with other areas of public international law constitutional questions and new regional perspectives from Europe South Africa the Pacific Rim Region and Latin America Together they provide an invaluable resource for scholars practitioners and policymakers     International Labour Documentation International Labour Organization. Central Library and Documentation Bureau,1996     Business and Human Rights César Rodríguez-Garavito,2017-09-21 The regulation of business in the global economy poses one of the main challenges for governance as illustrated by the dynamic scholarly and policy debates about the UN Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights and a possible international treaty on the matter This book takes on the conceptual and legal underpinnings of global governance approaches to business and human rights with an emphasis on the Guiding Principles GPs and attention to the current treaty process Analyses of the GPs have tended to focus on their static dimension such as the standards they include rather than on their capacity to change to push the development of new norms and practices that might go beyond the initial content of the GPs and improve corporate compliance with human rights This book engages both the static and dynamic dimensions of the GPs and considers the issue through the eyes of scholars and practitioners from different parts of the world     International Labour Documentation International Labour Office.
