Case Method and Pluralist Economics Kavous Ardalan,2017-12-09 This book discusses the relationship between pluralist economics and the case study method of teaching advocating the complimentary use of both to advance economics education Using a multi paradigmatic philosophical frame of analysis the book discusses the philosophical methodological and practical aspects of the case study method while drawing comparisons with those of the more commonly used lecture method The book also discusses pluralist economics through the exposition of the philosophical foundations of the extant economics schools of thought which is the focal point of the attention and admiration of pluralist economics More specifically the book discusses the major extant schools of thought in economics Neo Classical Economics New Institutional Economics Behavioral Economics Austrian Economics Post Keynesian Economics Institutional Economics Radical Economics and Marxist Economics and emphasizes that these schools of thought in economics are equally scientific and informative that they look at economic phenomena from their certain paradigmatic viewpoint and that together they provide a more balanced understanding of the economic phenomenon under consideration Emphasizing paradigmatic diversity as the cornerstone of both the case method and pluralist economics the book draws the two together and makes an effective case for their combined use A rigorous multi faceted analysis of the philosophy methodology and practice of economics education this book is important for academicians and students interested in heterodox economics philosophy and education Michigan Business Cases ,1930 The Survey ,1923 Business Law--case Method ... William KixMiller,William H. Spencer,1915 introductory MICROECONOMICS Cristobal M. Pagoso,1994 Problems in Sales Management University of Michigan. Bureau of Business Research,1930 The Case Study Companion Scott Andrews,2021-05-25 The Case Study method of teaching and learning adopted by business schools and management centres globally provides an important function in management education but employing it effectively can often be a challenge This book provides practical insights tools and approaches for both case teaching and writing drawing on perspectives from expert practitioners around the world This book aims to critically examine different approaches to using case studies in group based participant centred learning environments exploring good practices for case teaching and learning It provides guidance for case writers on various approaches to structuring case data presentational formats and the use of technology in the construction of different types of cases It also demonstrates the use of the case method as a tool for assessment supporting students own development of cases to showcase good practice in organisations The final section of this book showcases some of the resources available providing links and reviews of additional material that can support future case teaching and writing practice including publication The Case Study Companion is designed for lecturers using cases within their teaching across all management disciplines as well as those training for Professional Development and Management Education qualifications It will also be useful for postgraduate MBA and Executive Education students wanting to make the most of case studies in their learning and assessments The Journal of Business Education ,1929 The magazine for teachers of business subjects Case Studies on Educational Administration Theodore J. Kowalski,2008 This book immerses prospective administrators in the realities of practice Problem solving and decision making skills are addressed through the use of open ended case studies Effective practice in school administration requires both leadership and management In today s reform minded information based society practitioners must be able to frame problems correctly and then make effective decisions to ameliorate them As leaders district and school level administrators are expected to focus on what should be done to improve schools as managers they are expected to focus on how to do things successfully The cases in this book are designed to make students think about common problems of practice by encouraging them to bridge theory and practice More precisely the cases are intended to hone four essential practitioner skills 1 The ability to frame a problem correctly 2 The ability to develop and evaluate alternative solutions to a defined problem 3 The ability to use data and other facts to counter the influence of politics and emotion in decision making 4 The ability to grow professionally by engaging in reflective practice

Case Studies in Management and Business (Volume 2) (UUM Press) Rosliza Mat Zin, 2015-01-01 Institute for Business and Management Research IMBRe Universiti Utara Malaysia is pleased to extend this book which features a compilation of business management case studies The aims of this second volume of Case Studies in Management and Business remain unchanged from the first volume Realizing the importance of using case study as one of the student centered learning approach this book is designed to enhance learning and teaching activities by providing a collection of teaching cases which could be used both for the undergraduate and postgraduate levels This book includes relatively wide scope of work includes marketing business policy IT and Islamic finance However the field is still in the field of management in general The target audience is an academician and management students In general this book meets the scope of management It is also suitable for an academician and students but may not be appropriate in using for certain course because of its scope is geared to specific disciplines This book has the potential especially if the university lecturers took it to be discussed in their classes There is least amount of case use Malaysia environment in the market The cases highlighted also are unique and not similar to the other cases Furthermore this book is using a real case in the beginning especially in our country In addition this book is accompanied by teaching notes for each case These teaching notes are available to instructors only First to fifth case is ongoing for all cases involving the issue of whether the marketing or the service industry The second and third cases involving issues on marketing in the nutritional industry Consequently the third to fifth case involves a service industry that highlight on a unique issues within the companies concerned The sixth case issues on muamalat are not so related to other cases Since each case is developed by different authors writing style and technique seem different and may disturb the concentration of the readers The needs for local and contextual business case studies motivate most of the local case writers to write and compile teaching cases that are interesting and relevant to contemporary business situations and decisions particularly in Malaysia
