Collected Poems With Notes Toward The Memoirs:

Collected Poems Djuna Barnes, 2005 This collection of many unpublished works of American writer Djuna Barnes is accompanied by her autobiographical notes which describe the expatriate scene in Paris during the 1920s including her interactions with James Joyce and Gertrude Stein and her intimate recollections of T S Eliot The Poems ... Now First Collected, with Notes and a Memoir of His Life by David Laing William Dunbar, 1834 Economies of Desire at the Victorian Fin de Sie Jane Ford, Kim Edwards Keates, Patricia Pulham, 2015-10-14 This volume marks the first sustained study to interrogate how and why issues of sexuality desire and economic processes intersect in the literature and culture of the Victorian fin de si cle At the end of the nineteenth century the move towards new models of economic thought marked the transition from a marketplace centred around the fulfilment of needs to one ministering to anything that might potentially be desired This collection considers how the literature of the period meditates on the interaction between economy and desire doing so with particular reference to the themes of fetishism homoeroticism the literary marketplace social hierarchy and consumer culture Drawing on theoretical and conceptual approaches including queer theory feminist theory and gift theory contributors offer original analyses of work by canonical and lesser known writers including Oscar Wilde A E Housman Baron Corvo Vernon Lee Michael Field and Lucas Malet The collection builds on recent critical developments in fin de si cle literature including major interventions in the areas of Decadence sexuality and gender studies and asks for instance how did late nineteenth century writing schematise the libidinal and somatic dimensions of economic exchange How might we define the relationship between eroticism and the formal economies of literary production performance And what relation exists between advertising consumer culture and dissident sexuality in fin de siecle literary discourses This book marks an important contribution to 19th Century and Victorian literary studies and enhances the field of fin de si cle studies more generally Modernist Poetics of Ageing Jade Elizabeth French, 2025-01-12 What happens when the modern woman ages Modernist Poetics of Ageing answers this question by being the first book length study of three late modernist women s writers Drawing on their place within wider modernist networks this monograph is primarily framed around work by Mina Loy H D and Djuna Barnes who are often thought of as the quintessentially youthful modern woman of the 1920s Taking a literary ageing studies and cultural criticism approach this monograph focuses on lived experience as well as thematic representations of ageing in their work to examine how each author grew older in the years 1940 1982 By surveying literary texts visual art photography life writing and archival material this book explores the intersection of old age as lived and as well as written to argue that modernist late writing embodies the realities of ageing and transforms them through avant garde aesthetics As an interdisciplinary study this work pairs ageing studies and modernist studies to innovatively consider experimental works written about and in later life The book suggests that a focus on older age complicates the very avant garde or modernist aesthetics that each author was interested in what happens when the scene of the new is populated by older people How does an embodied experience of illness inform an aesthetics of late style After fulfilling their role as the youthful modern woman of the 1920s how did each artist continue to create rich avant garde works that go well beyond the paradigms of late modernism Modernist Poetics of Ageing argues that the late lives of some of modernism s most prominent and networked women writers are overlooked despite being rich vital and contemporary in their continuing commitment to modernist experiment By reframing these older modernist women writers as engaged in continuing creative experiments Modernist Poetics of Ageing reveals that the new does not always have to be young The poems of William Dunbar, collected, with notes and a memoir of his life by D. Laing William Dunbar,1834 Nomadic Modernisms and Diasporic Journeys of Djuna Barnes and Jane Bowles Pavlina Radia,2016-09-07 This book traces the artistic trajectories of Djuna Barnes and Jane Bowles examining their literary representations of the nomadic ethic pervading the twentieth century expatriate movements in and out of America The book argues that these authors contribute to the nomadic aesthetic of American modernism its pastoral ideographies post colonial ecologies as well as regional and transcultural varieties Mapping the pastoral moment in different temporalities and spaces Barnes representing the 1920s expatriation in Europe while Bowles comments on the 1940s exodus to Mexico and North Africa this book suggests that Barnes and Bowles counter the critical trend associating American modernity primarily with urban spaces and instead locate the nomadic thrust of their times in the post colonial history of the American frontier The poetical works of John Dryden, with memoir, notes [&c.]. John Dryden,1893 The Poems and Plays of Sir Walter Scott Walter Scott,1927 Dyce Collection: Printed books, L to Z South Kensington Museum.
