Pursuing Language and Metalinguistics in K-12 Classrooms Renata Love Jones, C. Patrick Proctor, 2024-12-27 This conceptually expansive volume provides a theoretical framework and practical guide for designing and implementing literacy instruction that promotes students critical metalinguistic awareness in K 12 classroom contexts Grounded in varied instructional contexts the chapters present theories of language and overviews of research in ways that are accessible and engaging Through innovative research and practical examples the authors show how educators can address content areas modalities and K 12 student populations in increasingly diverse classroom spaces Concrete instructional examples throughout along with a culminating set of teacher vignettes make this text an invaluable resource for pre service teachers graduate students and scholars in the field of literacy education

The End of the Poem Giorgio Agamben, Daniel Heller-Roazen, 1999 This book by one of Italy's most important and original contemporary philosophers represents a broad general and ambitious undertaking nothing less than an attempt to rethink the nature of poetic language and to rearticulate relationships among theology poetry and philosophy in a tradition of literature initiated by Dante The author presents literature as a set of formal or linguistic genres that discuss or develop theological issues at a certain distance from the discourse of theology This distance begins to appear in Virgil and Ovid but it becomes decisive in Dante and in his decision to write in the vernacular His vernacular Italian reaches back through classical allusion to the Latin that was in his day the language of theology but it does so with a difference It is no accident that in the Commedia Virgil is Dante's guide The book opens with a discussion of just how Dante's poem is a comedy and it concludes with a discussion of the ends of poetry in a variety of senses enjambment at the ends of lines the concluding lines of poems and the end of poetry as a mode of writing this sort of literature Of course to have poetry end does not mean that people stop writing it but that literature passes into a period in which it is concerned with its own ending with its own bounds and limits historical and otherwise Though most of the essays make specific reference to various authors of the Italian literary tradition including Dante Polifilo Pascoli Delfini and Caproni they transcend the confines of Italian literature and engage several other literary and philosophical authors Plato Aristotle the Stoics Boethius the Provençal poets Mallarmé and Hölderlin among others Children's Books in Print R R
