Basics:

- Never use 'I think' or anything similar because it's just an assumption. Assumptions are not allowed, everything should be backed-up.
- Don't use 'I' to not make it personal.
- Sentence is a set of meaningful words; utterance is a meaningful expression even if it's just 'hmm' it doesn't follow grammatical rules.
- Pragmatics tries to fade the communication break-down through verbal or non-verbal communication
- Acquire a language means to get a language in an informal setting (family, society...)
- Learn a language means to get a language in a formal setting (language center, school...)
- Speaking another language makes you imitate their culture and behaviors
- Language determines the way we thought
- For every situation there is a specific type of language to be used
- Applied linguistics is all about solving language based problems and providing scientific answers
- BAAL is British Association for Applied Linguistics. It's like a professional club made in 1967 that connects teachers, researchers, and students interested in applied linguistics. Their goal is To
