Whose Ideas Matter? Amitav Acharya, 2011-07-22 Asia is a crucial battleground for power and influence in the international system It is also a theater of new experiments in regional cooperation that could redefine global order Whose Ideas Matter is the first book to explore the diffusion of ideas and norms in the international system from the perspective of local actors with Asian regional institutions as its main focus There s no Asian equivalent of the EU or of NATO Why has Asia and in particular Southeast Asia avoided such multilateral institutions Most accounts focus on U S interests and perceptions or intraregional rivalries to explain the design and effectiveness of regional institutions in Asia such as SEATO ASEAN and the ASEAN Regional Forum Amitav Acharya instead foregrounds the ideas of Asian policymakers including their response to the global norms of sovereignty and nonintervention Asian regional institutions are shaped by contestations and compromises involving emerging global norms and the preexisting beliefs and practices of local actors Acharya terms this perspective constitutive localization and argues that international politics is not all about Western ideas and norms forcing their way into non Western societies while the latter remain passive recipients Rather ideas are conditioned and accepted by local agents who shape the diffusion of ideas and norms in the international system Acharya sketches a normative trajectory of Asian regionalism that constitutes an important contribution to the global sovereignty regime and explains a remarkable continuity in the design and functions of Asian regional institutions

Constructing Global Order Amitav

Acharya,2018-03-22 For a long time international relations scholars have adopted a narrow view of what is global order who are its makers and managers and what means they employ to realize their goals Amitav Acharya argues that the nature and scope of agency in the global order who creates it and how needs to be redefined and broadened Order is built not by material power alone but also by ideas and norms While the West designed the post war order the non Western countries were not passive They contested and redefined Western ideas and norms and contributed new ones of their own making This book examines such acts of agency especially the redefinitions of sovereignty and security shaping contemporary world politics With the decline of Western dominance ideas and agency from the Rest may make it possible to imagine and build a truly global order
