Heath, 1983 This issue explores the tensions between literature and the sciences focusing on responses which see science as an alien ideology that threatens everything the arts hold dear and on a more positive response that sees the sciences as providing new tools viewpoints and knowledge about the world Concrete Poetry: a World View. Edited and with an Introduction by Mary Ellen Solt. Co-editor: Willis Barnstone Mary Ellen Solt, 1968 Concrete Poetry Mary Ellen Solt, Indiana University Press, 1971 Reading Writing Interfaces Lori Emerson, 2014-06-01 Lori Emerson examines how interfaces from today's multitouch devices to yesterday's desktops from typewriters to Emily Dickinson's self bound fascicle volumes mediate between writer and text as well as between writer and reader Following the threads of experimental writing from the present into the past she shows how writers have long tested and transgressed technological boundaries Reading the means of production as well as the creative works they produce Emerson demonstrates that technologies are more than mere tools and that the interface is not a neutral border between writer and machine but is in fact a collaborative creative space Reading Writing Interfaces begins with digital literature's defiance of the alleged invisibility of ubiquitous computing and multitouch in the early twenty first century and then looks back at the ideology of the user friendly graphical user interface that emerged along with the Apple Macintosh computer of the 1980s She considers poetic experiments with and against the strictures of the typewriter in the 1960s and 1970s and takes a fresh look at Emily Dickinson's self printing projects as a challenge to the coherence of the book Through archival research Emerson offers examples of how literary engagements with screen based and print based technologies have transformed reading and writing She reveals the ways in which writers from Emily Dickinson to Jason Nelson and Judd Morrissey work with and against media interfaces to undermine the assumed transparency of conventional literary practice Advances in Design and Digital Communication Nuno Martins, Daniel Brandão, 2020-10-22 This book reports on research findings and practical lessons featuring advances in digital and interaction design graphic design and branding design strategies and methodologies design education society and communication in design practice and other related areas Gathering the proceedings of the 4th International Conference on Digital Design and Communication Digicom 2020 held virtually on November 5 6 2020 the book describes cutting edge perspectives on and analysis of and solutions to challenges digital communication is currently presenting to society institutions and brands It offers a timely guide and a source of inspiration for designers of all kinds including graphic digital and web designers UI UX and social media designers and to researchers advertisers artists and entrepreneurs as well as brand or corporate communication managers Avant-Garde / Neo-Avant-Garde, 2016-08-01 This collection of critical essays explores new approaches to the study of avant garde literature and art film and architecture It offers a theoretical framework that avoids narrowly defined notions of the avant garde It takes into account the diversity of artistic aims and directions of the various avant garde movements and encourages a wide and open exploration of the multifaceted and often contradictory nature of the great variety of avant gardist innovations Individual essays concentrate on cubist collage and dadaist photomontage on abstract painting by members of the Dutch group De Stijl on verbal chemistry and dadaist poetry and on body art from futurism to surrealism In addition the collection wishes to open up the discussion of the avant garde to a thorough investigation of neo avant garde activities in the 1950s and 1960s For decades the appreciation of neo avant garde art and literature film and architecture suffered from a general and all inclusive rebuke This volume is designed to contribute to a breakthrough towards a more competent and more precise investigation of this research field Contributions include a discussion of Warhol s multiples as well as Duchamp s editioned readymades forms of concrete and digital poetry as well as the architectural Non Plan The main body of the volume is based on presentations and discussions of a three day research seminar held at the University of Edinburgh in September 2002 The research group formed around the Avant Garde Project at Edinburgh will continue with its efforts to elaborate a new theory of the avant garde in the coming years Radical Artifice Marjorie Perloff, 1991 Explores the intricate relationships of postmodern poetics to the culture of network television advertising layout and the computer Perloff argues that poetry today like the visual arts and theater is always contaminated by the language of mass media Among the many poets Perloff discusses are John Ashbery George Oppen Susan Howe Clark Coolidge Lyn Hejinian Leslie Scalapino Charles Bernstein Johanna Drucker Steve McCaffery and preeminently John Cage Publisher Finding Nothing Gregory Betts, 2021-07-30 Experimental literature accelerated dramatically in Vancouver in the 1960s as the influence of New American poetics merged with the ideas of Marshall McLuhan Vancouver poets and artists began thinking about their creative works with new clarity and set about testing and redefining the boundaries of literature As new gardes in Vancouver explored the limits of text and language some writers began incorporating collage and concrete poetics into their work while others delved deeper into unsettling revolutionary and Surrealist imagery There was a presumption across the avant garde communities that radical openness could provoke widespread socio political change In other words the intermedia experimentation and the related destruction of the line between art and society pushed art to the frontlines of a broad socio political battle of the collective imagination of Vancouver Finding Nothing traces the rise of the radical avant garde in Vancouver from the initial salvos of the Tish group through Blewointment s spatial experiments to radical Surrealisms and new feminisms Incorporating images original texts and interviews Gregory Betts shows how the VanGardes signalled a remarkable consciousness of the globalized
