Avant Inke James M. Dorsey, 1993-07      The European Avant-Garde - A Hundred Years Later, 2024-01-08 The title of this book The European Avant Garde A Hundred Years Later implies the European avant garde took place a century ago that it is a thing of the past However it does not aim to consolidate this position but to question it It addresses temporality as the central dimension related to the notion of the avant garde The book brings forth original revisions of the theories of the avant garde the works of the avant garde the idea of the avant garde as being the vanguard the leading force of change It addresses the returning of the avant garde during the twentieth century and today      Retracing Images Daniel Šuber, Slobodan Karamanic, 2012-01-05 Drawing on visual materials film art graffiti street art public advertisement memorials the essays of this collection offer detailed views on the cultural and political dynamics that preceded and emerged in the wake of the Yugoslav conflicts of the 1990s      Art as Capital Polona Tratnik, 2021-09-20 In global terms creative industries are on the rise as are new media investigations in art and initiatives that encourage innovation in the arts for end use in the economy However there is a significant lack of critical reflection on this form of creative production This important book points out the dangers and downfalls that accompany such a boom of the creative industries and the subordination of art to the economy and politics Specifically it shows that art as a mode of social and aesthetic practice is losing the very thing which it has striven for so desperately in the course of modernity its independence from other spheres of human activity

Contemporary Art and Capitalist Modernization Octavian Esanu, 2020-10-08 This book addresses the art historical category of contemporary art from a transregional perspective but unlike other volumes of its kind it focuses in on non Western instantiations of the contemporary The book concerns itself with the historical conditions in which a radically new mode of artistic production distribution and consumption called contemporary art emerged in some countries of Eastern Europe the post Soviet republics of the USSR India Latin America and the Middle East following both local and broader sociopolitical processes of modernization and neoliberalization Its main argument is that one cannot fully engage with the idea of the global contemporary without also paying careful attention to the particular local and or national symptoms of the contemporary condition Part I is methodological and theoretical in scope while Part II is historical and documentary For the latter a number of case studies address the emergence of the category contemporary art in the context of Lebanon Egypt India Hungary Slovenia Croatia Bosnia and Herzegovina Armenia and Moldova The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history globalism cultural studies and postcolonial studies
