Byrd, 2020-10-13 A revelatory and informative presentation of the anti apartheid posters created by Medu Art Ensemble Formed in the late 1970s Medu Art Ensemble forcefully articulated a call to end the apartheid system s racial segregation and violent injustice through posters that combined revolutionary imagery with bold slogans Advocating for decolonization and majority nonwhite rule in South Africa and neighboring countries Medu members were persecuted by the South African Defense Force and operated in exile across the border in Botswana The People Shall Govern features nearly all the surviving posters that Medu created between 1979 and 1985 These objects are exceedingly rare as they were originally smuggled into South Africa and mounted in public places where they were regularly confiscated or torn down on sight Offering new insight into the conceptual framework of Medu s working practice and featuring a beautiful silkscreened cover this volume examines the continuing relevance and impact of its poster production Seven Days, 1978 Violence and Non-Violence in Africa Pal Ahluwalia, Louise Bethlehem, Ruth Ginio, 2007-03-12 This unique volume seeks both to historicize and to deconstruct the pervasive almost ritualistic association of Africa with forms of terrorism as well as extreme violence the latter bordering on and including genocide Africa is tendentiously associated with violence in the popular and academic imagination alike Written by leading authorities in postcolonial studies and African history as well as highly promising emergent scholars this book highlights political social and cultural processes in Africa which incite violence or which facilitate its negotiation or negation through non violent social practice The chapters cover diverse historical periods ranging from fourteenth century Ethiopia and early twentieth century Cameroon to contemporary analyses set in Kenya Tanzania Nigeria Cameroon the Ivory Coast and South Africa It makes a crucial contribution to a revitalized understanding of the social and historical coordinates of violence or its absence in African settings Violence and Non Violence in Africa will be of interest to students and scholars of African history and anthropology colonialism and post colonialism political science and Africanist cultural studies Nada: the Southern Rhodesia Native Affairs Department Annual Southern Rhodesia.
