Concepts and Cases in Nursing Ethics Michael Terrence Yeo, 1991 Ethics in Nursing Martin Benjamin, Joy Curtis, 2010 The aim of this book is to provide practicing and student nurses with a useful introduction to the identification and analysis of ethical issues that reflect both the special perspective of nursing and the value of systematic philosophical inquiry Starting with cases based on real life the authors identify and draw on relevant principles concepts distinctions and reasoning in thinking them through

Nursing Ethics Janie B. Butts, Karen L. Rich, 2016 Nursing ethics across the curriculum and into practice fourth edition prepares students and professionals for the moral issues encountered in nursing practice Healthcare ethics is constantly evolving to keep pace with new issues as they arise as well as new policies and laws The fourth edition has been completely revised to reflect the evolution of nursing ethics within health care Updated case studies research and legal perspectives as well as the 2015 American Nurses Association's Code of ethics offer students and practitioners a wealth of current knowledge Page 4 de la couverture

Key Concepts and Issues in Nursing Ethics P. Anne Scott, Shane M. Scott, 2024-11-15 This second edition offers updates new topics and new short case studies based on real stories from the health care arena ensuring that each chapter of this book is rooted in descriptions of nursing practise that are grounded salient narratives of nursing care The reader is assisted to explore the ethical dimension of nursing practice what it is and how it can be portrayed discussed and analysed within a variety of practice and theoretical contexts One of the unique contributions of this book is to consider nursing not only in the context of the individual nurse patient relationship but also as a social good that is of necessity limited due to the ultimate limits on the nursing and health care resource This book will help the reader consider what good nursing looks like both within the context of limitations on resources during crises situations and under conditions of scarcity Indeed any discussion of ethical issues in nursing should be well grounded in a conceptualisation of nursing that nursing students and practising nursing can recognise accept and engage with Nursing like medicine social work and teaching has a clear moral aim to do good In the case of nursing to do good for the patient However it is vital that in the pressurised constrained post COVID 19 pandemic health service of the 21st century we help nurses explore what this might mean for nursing practice and what can reasonably be expected of the individual nurse and the nursing profession in terms of good nursing care
