Concrete Island J. G. Ballard, 2009-03-20 A chilling novel about our modern world from the author of Empire of the Sun and Crash

Concrete Island J. G. Ballard, 2014-07-15 A wealthy architect becomes a modern day Robinson Crusoe in this chilling twisted novel by the author of Empire of the Sun and High Rise Robert Maitland a thirty five year old architect is driving home from his London offices when a blowout sends his speeding Jaguar hurtling out of control After smashing through a temporary barrier he finds himself dazed and disoriented on a traffic island below three converging motorways But when he tries to climb the embankment or flag down a passing car for help it proves impossible and he finds himself imprisoned on the concrete island Maitland must survive using only what he can find in his crashed car As in all J G Ballard s best work Concrete Island provides an unnerving study of our modern lives and world With his alienating Ballardian view of normal events this is a unique novel from one of the twentieth century s finest writers Praise for Concrete Island A vision in both style and substance The literary equivalent of Salvador Dal or Max Ernst The Washington Post Book World This is the excellent stuff of classic castaway adventure stiffened here by contemporary overtones that call into question social values San Francisco Chronicle

Literary Materialisations and Interferential Reading Ingrid Hotz-Davies, Martin Middeke, Christoph Reinfandt, 2025-03-28 This book traces literature s long history of repurposing representational language use for performative material effects It brings this tradition into dialogue with the recent material turn in literary and cultural theory which seeks to supplant or at least rethink the foundational influence of the linguistic turn in the field Drawing on a variety of cutting edge new materialist theories this book programmatically outlines the contours of a methodology of Interferential Reading that is then brought to bear on examples ranging from Shakespeare Donne Keats and Tennyson to Northern Irish poets Colette Bryce and Sin ad Morrissey and Scottish poet Kathleen Jamie from British thing essays to J G Ballard John Berger Nicola Barker Richard Powers Colum McCann Tim Crouch Hanya Yanagihara and Korean writer Han Kang winner of the 2024 Nobel Prize for literature and from the history of theatrical bodies to the intermedial as well as affective textures in very recent experimental theatre live theatre broadcasting and media art

The Empire's of J. G. Ballard David Ian Paddy, 2015-08-25 J G Ballard once declared that the most truly alien planet is Earth and in his science fiction he abandoned the traditional imagery of rocket ships traveling to distant galaxies to address the otherworldliness of this world The Empires of J G Ballard is the first extensive study of Ballard s critical vision of nation and empire of the political geography of this planet Paddy examines how Ballard s self perceived status as an outsider and exile the Sheppertonian from Shanghai generated an outlook that celebrated worldliness and condemned parochialism This book brings to light how Ballard wrestled with notions of national identity and speculated upon the social and psychological implications of the post war transformation of older models of empire into new imperialisms of consumerism and globalization Presenting analyses of Ballard s full body of work with its tales of reverse colonization psychological imperialism the savagery of civilization estranged Englishmen abroad and at home and multinational communities built on crime The Empires of J G Ballard offers a fresh perspective on the fiction of J G Ballard The Empires of J G Ballard An Imagined Geography offers a sustained and highly convincing analysis of the imperial and post imperial histories and networks that shape and energise Ballard s fictional and non fictional writings To what extent can Ballard be considered an international writer What happens to our understanding of his post war science fictions when they are opened up to the language and logics of post colonialism And what creative and critical roles do the spectres of empire play in Ballard s visions of modernity Paddy follows these and other fascinating lines of enquiry in a study that is not only essential reading for Ballard students and scholars but for anyone interested in the intersections of modern and contemporary literature history and politics Jeanette Baxter Anglia Ruskin University Shanghai made my father Arriving in England after WW2 he was a person of the world who d witnessed extremes of human experience and remained the outsider observing life from his home in Shepperton 1930s Shanghai Paris of the East was a mix of international sophistication and violence unfettered capitalism and acute poverty American cars martinis and Coca Cola a place marked by death and war It had a profound influence on my father and his imagination Dr Paddy s fascinating book explores my father s fiction within an international context and offers a profound reading of a man who always kept his eyes and mind open to the world Fay Ballard Concrete-cement Age ,1922 Bulletin ,1968 Carbon-13 Nuclear Magnetic Resonance Spectra of Monosubstituted Pyridines H.
