General Abner M. Perrin, C.S.A. Ron V. Killian,2014-01-10 More than 1 000 men held the rank of brigadier general during the Civil War but a surprising number remain unknown to all but the most ardent scholar These lesser known brigadiers like General Abner M Perrin 1830 1864 played much more than a casual role in the momentous conflict Perrin of the South Carolina 14th Regiment took part in all of the major battles of the Army of Northern Virginia At Gettysburg he assumed command of a brigade whose general was wounded and defeated all opponents to lead the first troops to enter the town He received a promotion to brigadier general for his actions and commanded his own brigade at Mine Run the Wilderness and Spotsylvania where he was mortally wounded This welcome biography chronicles Perrin s life and military career removing this deserving Civil War personality from the shadows of history The Civil War Memoirs of a Virginia Cavalryman Robert T. Hubard,2007-01-07 A witness who brings remarkable life and color to the Civil War in the East Robert Hubard was an enlisted man and officer of the 3rd Virginia Cavalry in the Army of Northern Virginia CSA from 1861 through 1865 He wrote his memoir during an extended convalescence spent at his father s Virginia plantation after being wounded at the battle of Five Forks on April 1 1865 Hubard served under such Confederate luminaries as Jeb Stuart Fitz Lee Wade Hampton and Thomas L Rosser He and his unit fought at the battles of Antietam on the Chambersburg Raid in the Shenandoah Valley at Fredericksburg Kelly s Ford Chancellorsville Gettysburg Bristoe Station and down into Virginia from the Wilderness to nearly the end of the war at Five Forks Hubard was like many of his class and station a son of privilege and may have felt that his service was an act of noblesse oblige Unlike many of his contemporaries however he was a keen observer and a writer of unusual grace clarity humor and intelligence The editor has fleshed out his memoir by judicious use of Hubard s own wartime letters which not only fill in gaps but permit the reader to see developments in the writer s thinking after the passage of time Because he was a participant in events of high drama and endured the quotidian life of a soldier Hubard s memoir should be of value to both scholars and avocational readers Freedom: Volume 1, Series 1: The Destruction of Slavery Ira Berlin,1985 Contains primary source material The Battle of Glendale: Robert E. Lee's Lost Opportunity Douglas Crenshaw,2017-01-09 By late June 1862 the Union army under George B McClellan stood at the doorstep of Richmond In a desperate hour for the Confederate capital Robert E Lee attacked McClellan and drove the Union army into a full retreat toward the safety of the James River Lee recognized an opportunity to seal a decisive victory and commanded his Army of Northern Virginia to prevent the Union forces from retreating A P Hill James Longstreet and Stonewall Jackson were among those who engaged in the harrowing day of battle during the Seven Days Campaign Author Douglas Crenshaw details the dramatic Battle of Glendale in the Civil War The Confederate General William C. Jefferson Davis,2013-09 This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text Purchasers can usually download a free scanned copy of the original book without typos from the publisher Not indexed Not illustrated 1881 edition Excerpt following the battle when I was looking for Generals Beauregard and Johnston in riding over and to the rear of the battle field I discovered that the greater part of the troops that had been engaged in the battle were in a great state of confusion I saw companies looking for their regiments and squads looking for their companies and they were scattered as far as I went toward Manassas It was very apparent that no considerable body of those troops that had been engaged on the left could have been brought into a condition next day for an advance toward Washington The dispute as to who planned the battle or commanded on the field General Johnston or General Beauregard is a most unprofitable one The battle which General Beauregard planned was never fought because the enemy did not move as he expected him to move The battle which was fought was planned by McDowell at least so far as the ground on which it was fought was concerned He made a movement on our left which was wholly unexpected and unprovided for and we were compelled to fight a defensive battle on that flank by bringing up reinforcements from other points as rapidly as possible When Generals Johnston and Beauregard arrived on the field where the battle was actually fought it had been progressing for some time with the odds greatly against us What was required then was to rally the troops already engaged which had been considerably shattered and hold the position to which they had been compelled to retire until reenforcements could be brought up According to the statements of both generals the command of the troops then on the field was given to General Beauregard and he continued to exercise it until the close but in subordination of course to
