

THE GUIDELINES FOR THE CONFIRMATION ESSAY

Topic

The topic will be one of the six chief parts of the Small Catechism. If you wish to write on another topic, Pastor Crown must approve that topic.

Purpose

The purpose of the essay is three-fold:

1. Is the catechumen able to explain clearly a chief part of Christian doctrine from the Small Catechism?
2. Is the catechumen able to explain what the chief part means to the individual believer, in particular him/herself?
3. Is the catechumen able to explain what the chief part means to the Church as the body of Christ?

Content

The essay will have three major sections, besides introduction and conclusion, corresponding to the three purposes of the essay. The three sections are:

1. Explanation. This section of the essay is to summarize briefly what is taught in the chief part of the Small Catechism and to note, by means of paraphrase, the most significant Bible passages that teach the particular part of the Small Catechism. The basic question to be answered here is: What does it mean?
2. Personal Confession. This section of the essay describes why the chief part of the Small Catechism is important for the individual Christian, in particular you. Questions to be answered in this section include: Is this law or gospel? How does it strengthen my faith?
3. Church Confession. This section of the essay outlines the importance the chief part of the Small Catechism has for the Body of Christ as a whole. Questions to be answered include: How does the Church employ this in the liturgy? How is Christ proclaimed in the chief part?

Length

The essay must be no less than 1,000 words, typed (computer or other means) if possible, otherwise neatly written. Pastor Crown must approve exceptions.
