

A detailed stone relief from a Maya temple. The central focus is a carved scene featuring two figures. On the left, a figure with a large, feathered headdress is shown in profile, facing right. On the right, another figure, also with a headdress, is shown facing left. They appear to be in conversation or a ritual. The background and foreground are filled with intricate hieroglyphic carvings, including large, stylized symbols and smaller, more complex glyphs. The entire relief is set within a rectangular frame of decorative carvings.
