The Three Meter Zone J. D. Pendry, 2001-01-09 A pocket sized guide to being a good leader for non commissioned officers NCOs Discusses US Army values in user friendly terms from the perspective of a former member of the NCO core Introduces three different types of leadership styles for 3 meter 50 meter and 100 meter soldiers Praise for The Three Meter Zone I have read plenty of leadership books and find this one to be the most realistic This book is down to earth with plenty of scenarios quotations and situations that can easily be related to a reader's past, present, and future. I highly recommend this book. Army Magazine Pendry's book is both timely and useful. I encourage all battalion and brigade commanders to add it to their unit's professional reading list. Read this book, take up his challenge to critically examine ourselves and our styles. Armor Magazine J. D. Pendry does a superb job of relating his own personal experiences and tying them into everyday leadership and management principles. It is not too difficult to transfer the lessons presented here to any other military service or civilian application. U.S. Naval Institute Proceedings Business and corporate leaders would do well to take Pendry's lessons to heart. Ocala Florida Star Banner Changing Minds in the Army Stephen J. Gerras, Leonard Wong, 2013. In a time of extraordinary fiscal and national security uncertainty, it seems naive to assume that all or even most of a strategic leader's current assumptions will be just as relevant several years into the future. This monograph highlights the need for Army senior leaders in the midst of change to periodically question their deep-seated beliefs on critical issues and perhaps change their minds rather than relying solely on what they have long believed to be true. Leader's Book Department of the Army, 2008-11-03. Creed of the Noncommissioned Officer: No one is more professional than I. I am a Noncommissioned Officer, a leader of soldiers. As a Noncommissioned Officer, I realize that I am a member of a time-honored Corps which is known as The Backbone of the Army. I am proud of the Corps of Noncommissioned officers and will at all times conduct myself so as to bring credit upon the Corps, the Military Service, and my country regardless of the situation in which I find myself. I will not use my grade or position to attain pleasure, profit, or personal safety. Competence is my watchword. My two basic responsibilities will always be uppermost in my mind: accomplishment of my mission and the welfare of my soldiers. I will strive to remain tactically and technically proficient. I am aware of my role as a Noncommissioned Officer. I will fulfill my responsibilities inherent in that role. All soldiers are entitled to outstanding leadership. I will provide that leadership. I know my soldiers, and I will always place their needs above my own. I will communicate with my soldiers and never leave them uninformed. I will be fair and impartial when recommending both punishment and rewards. Officers in my unit will have maximum time to accomplish their duties; they will not have to accomplish mine. I will earn their respect and confidence as well as those of my soldiers. I will be loyal to those with whom I serve: seniors, peers, and subordinates alike. I will exercise initiative by taking the appropriate action in the absence of orders. I will not compromise my integrity nor my moral courage. I will not forget, nor will I allow my comrades to forget, that we are professionals. Noncommissioned officers leaders.
