Dynamic Locational Phases of Economic Activity in the Globalized World Toshiharu Ishikawa, 2016-03-11 This book clarifies the mechanisms of economic globalization in changing industries locations and shows how industries locations have changed through those mechanisms First the book deals with the retailing industry Introducing the concept of a contact price into the market area analysis it is shown in Part I that retailers market areas and prices are changed in different ways by a reduction of transportation costs The mechanism of these changes is explained by checking the contact prices at apexes of the retailers market areas Then the book moves to the manufacturing industry and deals with a firm s production process Part II of the book shows the manner in which the production volume of factories within an agglomeration is decreased as the number of factories within the agglomeration increases Subsequently considering the fact that many production factories depart from agglomerations to other sites to reduce production costs a method of searching for a factory s new site is proposed in which a firm can seek out an optimal location of a factory in a short period of time By referring to a chaotic phenomenon a firm sets a location prospective area in a large geographical area and selects an optimal location within that area In the third part of the book the city system is the focus Part III elucidates the theoretical formation of a city system and analyzes structural changes of a city system due to a reduction of transportation costs The mechanism of the change is explained by a flexible market area theory which studies a city system by using the market areas established in the free entry equilibrium Then the economic relationships between the cities within a city system are examined from the point of view of the land rent in the cities areas This analysis shows the influences of a change in the largest city on other cities Finally the relationships between a city system and regional performance are examined using real data The examination shows that the city system reveals the regional performance

Contesting Rituals Andrew Strathern,Pamela J. Stewart,2005 This book fills a current need in Islamic Studies for a perspective on the nuanced investigation of ritual practices rather than a concentration on politicized forms of ideology The essays in this volume all written by scholarly specialists with first hand fieldwork experience take up a number of questions central to Islamic religion and ritual focusing on rituals as practices of making identities Identities are seen as changing in response to historical forces rather than as unchanging and rigid and the overall vision of Islam is seen as pluralistic rather than monolithic Several of the essays deal with gender relations showing that women may in practice gain some prominence in local contexts beyond what might be allowed by reformist Islamicizing authorities This is particularly the case when the focus is on varieties of Sufism The essays also recognize that elements of conflict and contestation are commonly present in ritual contexts because of struggles over power hence the title Contesting Rituals Politics gender relations and conflict between central reformists and local ritual specialists are all involved in these contestations Overall the volume aims to show the multiplicity of Islam and to demonstrate how the themes of multiplicity and unity are played out continuously over time The contributors to the volume are Kelly Pemberton South Asia Anna M Gade Indonesia Susan J Rasmussen Africa Elaine S Hutson Africa Shampa Mazumdar and Sanjoy Mazumdar USA Sean R Roberts Uyghurstan and Liyakat Takim Iraq The editors Pamela Stewart and Andrew Strathern provide an introductory overview This book is part of the Ritual Studies Monograph Series edited by Pamela J Stewart and Andrew Strathern Department of Anthropology University of Pittsburgh This volume is a useful addition to literature on Islam ritual and identity It successfully investigates the plasticity of Muslim ritual on multiple axes providing historical perspectives explorations of spatial transformation and experience near ethnographic analyses Journal of Anthropological Research 2006 The contributions offer interesting insights into aspects of Muslim religious practice their situatedness in wider social contexts and change over time The Journal of Social Anthropology The reader comes away with an awareness of the complexities of being Muslim in today's world of globalization mass migration changing gender roles and continuing ethno nationalist struggles The Journal of the Royal Anthropological Institute of Great Britain and Ireland Boot and Shoe Recorder ,1912 A Discussion of Telephone Competition Ohio Independent Telephone Association, John H.
