

COMPETENCE

DEFINITION

Competence refers to the ability of an individual to effectively perform or carry out a task, skill, or role. It encompasses having the necessary knowledge, skills, experience, and capability to achieve desired results. Competence is not just theoretical knowledge but also the practical ability to use that knowledge in real-world situations.

EXAMPLES

- Medical Competence: A surgeon successfully performs a complex surgery, demonstrating her competence in the medical field.
- Linguistic Competence: A translator accurately translates a document from French to English, showcasing his competence in both languages.

International Perspectives on Competence in the Workplace Christine R. Velde, 2009-10-08 As the world's economy develops into a more dynamic fast moving and unpredictable entity it is crucial that the workers who create wealth have the ability to assess and respond to new and unforeseen challenges In other words the future will require a more competent workforce What though does this mean in practice In this the fully revised second edition of Christine Velde's book a variety of researchers from around the world provide a truly international perspective on the issue They help to redefine the term competence Rather than responding to challenges using a pre existing set of skills they see competence as having the ability to assess new situations and then adapt one's response accordingly particularly in collaboration with others Providing the reader with insightful perspectives about competence in different situations and contexts the book's sections explore the concept of competence in industry and vocational education in schools and colleges in small businesses and companies and in universities The interpretation experience and teaching of competence in the workplace is boiled down to five essential components that in themselves represent an argument for a more holistic conception of competence Velde herself concludes the book by synthesizing and reflecting on the contents This book provides the reader with insightful perspectives on competence and the characteristics of learning environments in different workplace contexts Drawing on phenomenographic insights allows it to present a more enlightened view of competence at the same time as opening up an international dialogue about the meaning and interpretation of competence in the workplace Useful not only to educators and researchers this volume will also assist leaders and managers in a variety of contexts to develop more meaningful workplaces

The Influence of Cultural Contexts in Learners' Attributions for Success and Failure in Foreign Language Learning Ana Sofia Gonzalez, 2015-10-05 Attribution theory has attracted considerable attention in recent years especially in the field of language learning A great share of the research conducted in this area has attempted to uncover factors that could influence learners perceptions of success and failure in foreign language learning Particular emphasis has been given to factors like age gender perceived level of success and language studied and some suggestions that learners cultures also play a part have been made although conclusions based on researchers assumptions of learners culture characteristics can run the risk of falling into stereotyping This book is the result of research conducted to show that learners cultural characteristics previously researched and analysed by means of grounded theory and factor analysis may influence not only the attributions mentioned by them for their successes and failures in learning English but also the way learners see these attributions in terms of their dimensions of locus of causality stability and controllability a classification that has been regarded as common sense and has therefore often been made by researchers themselves This book will be of interest to scholars whose research focus is in theories of motivation and self theories especially as they are applied to learning in general and language learning in particular It will also be useful to language teachers especially those working in foreign language learning contexts as they are in a good position to identify reasons for their learners lack of motivation caused by their success and failure perceptions and may have some ideas on how to retrain learners attributions particularly those which are more external and stable
