Believing in America Michael McNamara,2020-04-20 Was the new world designed to be a secular experiment What does the separation of church and state mean What do our founding documents and our Founders say in their original words This book contains the complete text of many of the founding documents of the u nited States as well as an analysis of these documents select correspondence and speeches of our nation s leaders throughout history This book also includes an investigation of what our national symbols really mean including the eagle Great Seal Statue of Liberty Mount Rushmore and our coinage and paper money Everywhere we look our leaders from the very founding of a new nation weaved the presence of a benevolent God into our lives The analyses in this book may be the foundation for a great conversation about God s place in American society

Believe America Samson Johnson,2023-09-01 Samson Johnson has spent a life in politics A self professed politics bicycle seat finds himself run down and out of faith around 2014 Despite having worked many positions in numerous campaigns for a litany of different causes all over the political spectrum he is jaded pained and full of doubt In an effort to bring himself down from the non stop jet set campaigning lifestyle Samson takes a quiet data entry job for a think tank in Washington DC in an effort to reclaim stability in his life Within weeks however Samson s attempt at finding serenity is shattered with reports of another mass shooting Samson finds himself possessed to address gun violence and begins a one man campaign to end it forever From Militia men in Oklahoma to a Pride Center in Vermont from shareholders in California to reservation workers in South Dakota Samson Johnson s Believe America movement traverses all over America to reach its people Yet as the movement builds in popularity so does Samson s reflection on his policy Across his journey he is given the creeping realization that his policy may be woefully misguided and in fact stand to do more harm than good
