punctuated by an ambitious attempt to transform the natural environment Wars against nature were long a nationwide characteristic in rural China during the collective period After decollectivization rather than being reversed overexploitation of nature intensified due to rapid economic development and increased inequality Meanwhile the rhetoric of man can conquer nature was replaced by rehabilitate beautiful landscapes seeming to embody a shifting conceptualization of people s relationship to nature In the background of the twin campaigns of war against nature and rebuilding beautiful landscapes this dissertation provides a first hand understanding of natural resource management and environment changes from a
