lying for hire lobbyism increasing concentration of capital in the hands of a wealthy few and corporate wrongdoing and criminality It also questions whether political democracy can survive indefinitely in the absence of economic democracy of labor hiring capital rather than capital labor It highlights the potential of the social teachings of the Catholic Church and the now largely forgotten Distributist political philosophy and program that originated from them as a means of bringing about a more equal just and genuinely democratic social order It describes and evaluates Australian attempts to give effect to Distributism with special reference to Victoria And with an optimistic view to future possibilities it documents the support and advocacy of Pope Francis and ownership by some 83 000 workers of the Mondragon cooperatives in Spain This book will interest scholars and students of Catholic social teaching history economics industrial relations and business and management
