Planet Claire, Suite for Cello and Sad-Eyed Lovers Jeff Porter, 2021-01-05
The second installment in Ann Hood s Gracie Belle imprint challenges the traditional solemnity that characterizes nonfiction books of grief loss and sorrow Few readers will fail to be gripped by this tragically common story about death and what comes after for those left behind A haunting and thought provoking consideration of death and how utterly it rips apart our lives Kirkus Reviews Starred Review Planet Claire is the story of the untimely death of the author s wife and his candid account of the following year of madness and grief As his life unravels Porter analyzes his sadness with growing interest He talks to Claire as if to evoke a presence to mark a space for memory He reports on his daily walks and shares observations of life s sadness while reminiscing about various moments in their life together Like Orpheus the author searches for a lost love and what he finds is not the dog of doom but flashes of an intimate symmetry that brighten the darkest places of sorrow The second title from Ann Hood s Gracie Belle imprint Planet Claire takes readers on a journey of sorrow that recalls memorable works by C S Lewis A Grief Observed Joan Didion The Year of Magical Thinking and Julian Barnes Levels of Life Porter s memoir however is also playful quirky and self ironic in a way that challenges the genre s traditional solemnity Like the novel Grief Is the Thing with Feathers by Max

Porter this is an unpredictably funny account of heartbreak as if to say there s something about the magnitude of loss that troubles even earnestness Annals & Magazine of Natural History ,1899 The Annals and Magazine of Natural History ,1899 "The" Larvae of the British Butterflies and Moths William Buckler,1887 Ray Society ,1887 The Larvæ of the British Butterflies and Moths William Buckler,1887 Occasional Papers of Bernice P. Bishop Museum Bernice Pauahi Bishop Museum,1900 Congressional Record United States. Congress,1984 The Congressional Record is the official record of the proceedings and debates of the United States Congress It is published daily when Congress is in session The Congressional Record began publication in 1873 Debates for sessions prior to 1873 are recorded in The Debates and Proceedings in the Congress of the United States 1789 1824 the Register of Debates in Congress 1824 1837 and the Congressional Globe 1833 1873 Zoologist ,1862 A Guide to the Birds of New England and Eastern New York Ralph Hoffmann,1904 A Guide to the Birds Ralph Hoffmann,1904
