Herd Register American Guernsey Cattle Club, 1929      Agriculture Decisions United States. Department of Agriculture, 1998 Up to 1988 the December issue contained a cumulative list of decisions reported for the year by act docket numbers arranged in consecutive order and cumulative subject index by act      Baseball Hall of Shame 4 Bruce Nash, Allan Zullo, 1991-05 The Baseball Hall of Shame 4 contains more than 100 absurd offbeat and hysterically funny stories proving that on the playing field and in the ballpark truth is indeed stranger than fiction      Farming for Boys Edmund Morris, 1881

The Great Equalizer Rick Borsten, 2015-05-12 Rick Borsten's extraordinary first novel tells the story of Benny Horowitz a young man who terrified of the prospects of life after commencement drops out of college just two weeks before graduation and finds a temporary job working at a halfway house for eight mentally challenged adults whose deviant and inappropriate behavior he is charged with reshaping It isn't long however before Benny begins to appreciate the uniqueness of each of the residents personalities and the richness of their worlds and discovers that it is he not they who is being reshaped and reshaped by one resident in particular Nadia Christov a mysterious 26 year old artist It is Nadia's rare ability to see the world with fresh eyes to appreciate the natural wonders surrounding her everywhere and all the time that finally convinces Benny it is she who holds the keys to the greatest of his post commencement fears While Benny's story is unfolding a series of flashbacks traces his unusual family history beginning with his grandfather Joseph who comes to America from Poland in the early 1900s and whose pessimistic vision of death as life's great equalizer is transformed over three generations into one of hope renewal and wonder Like Alice Walker's The Color Purple The Great Equalizer is a book to cherish for it nourishes the spirit by reminding us of the transformational power of love      Making American Boys Kenneth B. Kidd, 2004 Will boys be boys What are little boys made of Kenneth B Kidd responds to these familiar questions with a thorough review of boy culture in America since the late nineteenth century From the boy work promoted by character building organizations such as Scouting and 4 H to current therapeutic and pop psychological obsessions with children's self esteem Kidd presents the great variety of cultural influences on the changing notion of boyhood Kidd finds that the education and supervision of boys in the United States have been shaped by the collaboration of two seemingly conflictive approaches In 1916 Henry William Gibson a leader of the YMCA created the term boyology which came to refer to professional writing about the biological and social development of boys At the same time the feral tale with its roots in myth and folklore emphasized boys wild nature epitomized by such classic protagonists as Mowgli in The Jungle Books and Huck Finn From the tension between these two perspectives evolved society's perception of what makes a good boy from the responsible son asserting his independence from his father in the late 1800s to the idealized sexually confident and psychologically healthy youth of today The image of the savage child raised by wolves has been tamed and transformed into a model of white middle class masculinity Analyzing icons of boyhood and maleness from Father Flanagan's Boys Town and Max in Where the Wild Things Are to Elin Gonzalez and even Michael Jackson Kidd surveys films psychoanalytic case studies parenting manuals historical accounts of the discoveries of wolf boys and self help books to provide a rigorous history of what it has meant to be an all American boy Kenneth B Kidd is assistant professor of English at the University of Florida and associate director of the Center for Children's Literature and Culture Herd Register American Jersey Cattle Club,1928 Farm Mechanics ... Bernard Lyman Johnson,1922 The Herd Register of the American Guernsey Cattle Club ,1929 Living Green Jennifer Fosket,Laura Mamo,2009-06-01 This interesting book analyzes green communities thriving in North America and the people who build them The authors provide case studies of a commune in Virginia an ecovillage in L A and green active adult communities among other examples The book ends with a list of 10 lessons about social sustainability Sierra Club The Green Life Social issues are and need to be a central part of environmental and economic sustainability efforts Using stories of extraordinary communities across North America Living Green showcases the social side of living green The book features communities that explicitly integrate social and human factors into their design and planning and examines the impact living in these communities has on personal health well being and the capacity for pursuing sustainability It includes interviews with developers architects and residents highlighting personal ideals and efforts to pursue a sustainable lifestyle The book's three parts explore How community is central to sustainable living in everything from cohousing to communes Communities that specifically integrate green building design components with social justice politics such as racism poverty and urban alienation Housing options geared toward mainstream living that offer individual choices to those who wish to live green Written for those desiring to hear a good news story Living Green will appeal to individuals and communities living a sustainable lifestyle green building activists and academics in sociology planning and design architecture and environmental fields Jennifer Fosket and Laura Mamo are professors of sociology at McGill University and the University of Maryland respectively They have each made a career out of documenting people's experiences and ideas as they concern health and everyday living They are co founders of Social Green a nonprofit organization engaged in research consulting and education Jennifer Fosket lives in Berkeley California and Montreal Canada and Laura Mamo lives in San Francisco California and Washington DC Affordable Housing for Livable Cities Avi Friedman,Genessa Bates,2026-04-07 The book addresses current housing affordability challenges and presents innovative planning and design strategies for contemporary communities and homes that are both livable and affordable Written by a team of a planner and an architect each of the book's chapters stands for a subject in the design process moving from urban scale to that of a home and includes richly illustrated case studies that inspire and inform the design By exploring the role of livability in the design process the book presents methods of fostering community resilience and opportunity The Nation ,1922 Farmer's Weekly ,1918 Benny's Farm Dewey Morris,2002-04-01 Young readers may use the magnetic stickers to create their own illustrations of the story of Benny the farm dog as he searches all over the farm for a missing lamb The Jersey Bulletin and Dairy World ,1925
