An International Episode Henry James,2020-03-27 The two young Englishmen inaugurated the policy of not resisting Mrs Westgate by submitting with great docility and thankfulness to her husband He was evidently a very good fellow and he made an impression upon his visitors his hospitality seemed to recommend itself consciously with a friendly wink as it were as if it hinted judicially that you could not possibly make a better bargain Lord Lambeth and his cousin left their entertainer to his labors and returned to their hotel where they spent three or four hours in their respective shower baths Percy Beaumont had suggested that they ought to see something of the town but Oh damn the town his noble kinsman had rejoined They returned to Mr Westgate s office in a carriage with their luggage very punctually but it must be reluctantly recorded that this time he kept them waiting so long that they felt themselves missing the steamer and were deterred only by an amiable modesty from dispensing with his attendance and starting on a hasty scramble to the wharf But when at last he appeared and the carriage plunged into the purlieus of Broadway they jolted and jostled to such good purpose that they reached the huge white vessel while the bell for departure was still ringing and the absorption of passengers still active It was indeed as Mr Westgate had said a big boat and his leadership in the innumerable and interminable corridors and cabins with which he seemed perfectly acquainted and of which anyone and everyone appeared to have the entree was very grateful to the slightly bewildered voyagers He showed them their stateroom a spacious apartment embellished with gas lamps mirrors en pied and sculptured furniture and then long after they had been intimately convinced that the steamer was in motion and launched upon the unknown stream that they were about to navigate he bade them a sociable farewell Well goodbye Lord Lambeth he said goodbye Mr Percy Beaumont I hope you ll have a good time Just let them do what they want with you I ll come down by and by and look after you An International Episode Henry
