An Orthodox Voice:

Judaism: The Basics Jacob Neusner, 2006-11-22 The oldest of the world's major faiths Judaism as practiced today represents a tradition that goes back nearly 6 000 years Accessible and wide ranging Judaism The Basics is a must have resource covering the stories beliefs and expressions of that tradition Key topics covered include the Torah Israel the state and its people Passover Reform Judaism Orthodox Judaism and Zionism the impact of the Holocaust With a glossary of terms and extensive suggestions for further reading Judaism The Basics is an essential guide through the rich intricacies of the Jewish faith and people

Christianity in Bakhtin Ruth Coates, 1999-02-13 The work of the great Russian theorist Mikhail Bakhtin has been examined from a wide variety of literary and theoretical perspectives None of the many studies of Bakhtin begins to do justice however to the Christian dimension of his work Christianity in Bakhtin for the first time fills this important gap Having established the strong presence of a Christian framework in his early philosophical essays Ruth Coates explores the way in which Christian motifs though suppressed continue to find expression in the work of Bakhtin's period of exile and re emerge in texts written during the time of his rehabilitation Particular attention is paid to the themes of Creation Fall Incarnation and Christian love operating within metaphors of silence and exile concepts which inform Bakhtin's world view as profoundly as they influence his biography

The Voice Beautiful in Speech and Song Ernest G. White, 1918

Selected Essays, Volume II Andrew Louth, 2023-07-18 Taken together these two volumes collect seventy five essays written by Professor Andrew Louth over a forty year period Louth's contribution to scholarship and theology has always been significant and these essays have been collected from journals and edited collections many of which are difficult to access and are here made available over two thought provoking and wide ranging volumes Volume II collects essays on a variety of theological topics arranged chronologically showing the development of Louth's thought since 1978 Throughout this collection the nature of theology as it is understood within Orthodox tradition is a constant concern These essays offer distinctive reflections on categories such as development of doctrine that have become foundational in modern western thought but which must be viewed rather differently from an Orthodox perspective The legacy of modern Russian Orthodox thought especially the key figures of the twentieth century Russian diaspora is under constant consideration and forms a constant dialogue partner

Our Jewish Neighbors, 1927

Exploring Christian Song M. Jennifer Bloxam, Andrew Shenton, 2017-06-12 This essay collection celebrates the richness of Christian musical tradition across its two thousand year history and across the globe Opening with a consideration of the fourth century lamp lighting hymn Phos hilaron and closing with reflections on contemporary efforts of Ghanaian composers to create Christian worship music in African idioms the ten contributors engage with a broad ecumenical array of sacred music Topics encompass Roman Catholic sacred music in medieval and Renaissance Europe German Lutheran song in the eighteenth century English hymnody in colonial America Methodist hymnody adopted by Southern Baptists in the nineteenth century and Genevan psalmody adapted to respond to the post war tribulations of the Hungarian Reformed Church The scope of the volume is further diversified by the inclusion of contemporary Christian topics that address the evangelical methods of a unique Orthodox Christian composer s language the shared aims and methods of African American preaching and gospel music and the affective didactic power of American evangelical praise and worship music New material on several key composers including Jacob Obrecht J S Bach George Philipp Telemann C P E Bach Zoltan Kod ly and Arvo P rt appears within the book Taken together these essays embrace a stimulating variety of interdisciplinary analytical and methodological approaches drawing on cultural literary critical theological ritual ethnographical and media studies The collection contributes to discussions of spirituality in music and in particular to the unifying aspects of Christian sacred music across time space and faith traditions This collection celebrates the fifteenth anniversary of the Society for Christian Scholarship in Music

Religion, Gender and Race in Western European Arts and Culture Nella van den Brandt,2024-02-26 This book examines narratives of individual religious transformation in Western European literature and culture Religious individuals themes experiences and communities are widely represented in diverse literature and culture including literary texts and visual arts and media Taking the subject of religious transformation as an angle from which to study constructions of religion gender and race this book reveals through various case studies what authors documentary makers film makers and playwrights consider to be important possible shifts between the old and the new continuities and discontinuities and the formation of the self The chapters demonstrate how individual religious transformations are understood to be shaped by various intersections of difference and point at the need to consider gender as always related to and co constructing religion and race This transdisciplinary and intimate study provides a fresh lens through which to examine pressing questions regarding the place and future of religion gender and race in contemporary Western Europe The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license

Radio, Television and Modern Life Paddy Scannell,1996-12-23 Written by one of the foremost and widely respected writers in the field this volume sheds new light on the forms and premises of the communicative experience In doing so it challenges the theoretical positions of marxist and political economy of media analysts who focus largely on the structure of economic and social power within the media Instead Scannell explores the structuring of engagement of the viewer listener with the broadcaster by analysing the communicative intentions of the broadcaster and the understanding by the audience of those intentions This powerful and accessible book makes an important contribution to media studies in showing students how the history of the media can be enriched by communications theory
