INTERNAL FACTORS

| STRENGTHS (+)                       |  | WEAKNESSES (-)                        |   |
|-------------------------------------|--|---------------------------------------|---|
| Comprehensive Market Research       | We conduct thorough market research that provides deep insights into customer preferences and market dynamics.     | Inconsistent International Messaging  | Our international marketing messages sometimes lack consistency, affecting brand perception.                                |
| Cross-Functional Team Collaboration | Our marketing strategy benefits from strong collaboration between marketing, sales, and product development teams. | Insufficient Mobile Marketing         | We have not fully capitalized on mobile marketing, which means we miss out on a significant segment of the consumer market. |
| Proven Ad Campaign Effectiveness    | Our advertising campaigns have a proven track record of effectiveness and high ROI.                                | Delayed Market Entry                  | We often enter new markets later than competitors, missing early adopter advantages.  |
| Dedicated Customer Service          | We offer exceptional customer service, enhancing customer satisfaction and loyalty.                                | Low Social Media Engagement           | Our social media engagement rates are lower than industry standards.  |
| Innovative Product Positioning      | We excel in positioning our products innovatively, making them stand out in the marketplace.                       | Underdeveloped Partner Channels       | Our partner channels are underdeveloped, limiting our reach and potential sales.  |
| Efficient Resource Utilization      | We use our marketing resources efficiently, maximizing the impact of each dollar spent.                            | Limited R&D for Marketing Innovations | We allocate insufficient resources to marketing innovation R&D, slowing our innovation.                                     |
| Strong Online Sales Infrastructure  | Our online sales infrastructure is robust, facilitating smooth transactions and customer data collection.          | Dependence on Few Key Personnel       | Our strategy heavily depends on a few key personnel, posing risks if these individuals leave.                               |

EXTERNAL FACTORS

| OPPORTUNITIES (+)                  |   | THREATS (-)                         |   |
|------------------------------------|---|-------------------------------------|---|
| Emerging Market Penetration        | We can aggressively target emerging markets to build market share before competitors establish dominance. | Rapid Technological Change          | Rapid changes in technology could outpace our current marketing technologies and strategies.          |
| Integration of AI Technologies     | Integrating AI technologies can enhance personalization and targeting in our campaigns.                   | Increasing Marketing Regulation     | New regulations could impose restrictions on our marketing practices and increase compliance costs.   |
| Exploiting Niche Markets           | We can identify and exploit niche markets with specialized product offerings.                             | Fierce Competition                  | Intensifying competition could erode our market share and pressure margins.                           |
| Collaborations with Tech Companies | Partnering with tech companies can enhance our technological capabilities and market reach.               | Changes in Consumer Buying Behavior | Shifts in consumer buying behaviors could make some of our marketing channels less effective.         |
| Developing Subscription Models     | We can develop subscription models to ensure steady revenue and improve customer retention.               | Economic Recession Risks            | Potential economic downturns could decrease consumer spending and impact our marketing effectiveness. |
| Sponsorship Opportunities          | We can increase brand visibility and market influence through strategic sponsorships.                     | Cybersecurity Threats               | Cybersecurity threats could compromise our digital marketing efforts and customer data.               |
| Adopting Green Marketing           | Embracing green marketing strategies can appeal to environmentally conscious consumers.                   | Reputation Risks                    | Negative publicity or social media scandals could damage our brand reputation quickly.                |
