Analogical Imagination:

The Analogical Imagination David Tracy, 1981 Plunges into the rich pluralism of modern religion and comes up with a daring strategy of which each major religious tradition can be articulate its claiming to religious truth Newsweek The Analogical Imagination David Tracy (teologo.), 1981 Generous Orthodoxies Paul Silas Peterson, 2020-04-30 After the birth of the Protestant ecumenical movement in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries and following the first great wave of universal Christian ecumenism in the 1960s and 1970s after the Second Vatican Council prominent theologians of nearly every ecclesial tradition charted new territory in the last decades of the twentieth century They crossed boundaries within their own ecclesial traditions and built bridges to other Christian churches churches that were once excluded from fellowship In the development of these new programs of ecumenical theology the theologians redefined their own confessional identities and in many cases crossed the liberal conservative divide within their own traditions This volume introduces this fascinating dynamic of theological mediation redefinition and generosity It shows how the ecumenical impulses which were directed outwardly to other traditions had reflexive effects inwardly Working in the realms of both historical and systematic theology the essays in this volume provide a critical analysis of the history of this general theological sentiment and offer an outlook for its future Contributors Brian D McLaren Foreword Paul Silas Peterson Introduction Part One Ecumenical reform theologies Andrew Meszaros Yves Congar The Birth of Catholic Ecumenism Matthew L Becker Edmund Schlink Ecumenical Theology Dorothea Sattler Otto Hermann Pesch Ecumenical Scholasticism Ronald T Michener George Lindbeck Ecumenical Unity through Ecclesial Particularity Nikolaos Asproulis John D Zizioulas A Pioneer of Ecumenical Dialogue and Christian Unity Part Two Overcoming liberal conservative polarities Ben Fulford Hans Frei Beyond Liberal and Conservative Friederike Nussel Wolfhart Pannenberg Liberal Orthodoxy Jay T Smith Stanley J Grenz The Evangelical Turn to Postliberal Theological Method Part Three Boundary crossings in philosophical systematic and ethical theology William E Myatt David Tracy Difference Unity and the Analogical Imagination Christophe Chalamet Robert Jenson God's Way and the Ways of the Church Victoria Lorrimar Stanley Hauerwas Witnessing Communities of Character Christine M Helmer Marilyn McCord Adams Philosophy Theology and Prayer Part Four Ecumenical theology today Wolfgang Vonday Pentecostalism and Christian Orthodoxy Revision Revival and Renewal Johanna Rahner Shifting Paradigms Future Ecumenical Challenges Michael Amaladoss Theology today in India Ecumenical or interreligious Bernd Oberdorfer Next Steps and Visions Lutheran Perspectives on Doctrinal Ecumenism Like and Unlike God John Neary, 1999 Neary argues that each type of imagination analogical and dialectical is the other's supplement they need each other to create a vision that is sharp rich and whole BOOK JACKET Catholicism Richard P. McBrien, 2013-05-28 A new study edition of the classic that has sold over 150 000 copies The Sacramentality of Music Christina Labriola, 2024-08-19 Steeped in the Catholic spiritual tradition The Sacramentality of Music argues that musical experience in its appeal to the entirety of the human person can serve as a locus of encounter with the divine and an occasion of God's self-revelation in love with spiritually nurturing ultimately transformative ends. Christina Labriola contends that this dynamic might most aptly be understood as sacramental: an all-encompassing perspective of the cosmos permeated by the divine creative, salvific, sustaining presence. Through its participation in the mysteries of beauty and creativity, its bodily and affective engagement, and impact on the inner life, music operates sacramentally, manifesting divine realities through the tangible stuff of human experience. In a thematic theological exploration that interweaves pastoral theology, theological aesthetics, and mysticism, the reader is invited to contemplate music's sacramental potentiality and to engage the sacramentally charged music of Beethoven, Bartok, MacMillan, Messiaen, Mozart, Elvids, Bach, Part and Hildegard. In attending to musical ways of relating to God, this book invites readers into a deepening awareness of the sacramental nature of reality itself, as that in which the spiritual resonance of music is grounded and reveals afresh, taking musical beauty seriously in the spiritual order, with repercussions for Christian living.

Christian Ethics Hak Joon Lee, 2021-11-09. In this capacious and accessible introduction to Christian ethics, Hak Joon Lee advances a renewed vision of Christian life that is liberative, grace-centered, and justice and peace-oriented in nature. Responding to key ethical questions of today, Lee applies the moral meaning and implications of the New Covenant in Jesus Christ to twenty-first-century life, characterized by fluidity, fragmentation, division, and violence. Christian Ethics begins by introducing covenant as the central drama and storyline of Scripture that culminates in the New Covenant of Jesus. It presents shalom, the wholeness and flourishing of creation, as God's ultimate purpose, and God's covenant as God's organizing mechanism of community that mediates God's work of liberation and restoration Lee proposes a creative model of Christian ethics based on the New Covenant of Jesus and its organizing patterns reconstructing the key categories of ethics agency norms authority of Scripture ethical discernment etc and drawing out four practices communicative engagement just peacemaking grassroots organizing and nonviolence The result is a new model of Christian ethics that is inclusive egalitarian ecological and justice and peace oriented which overcomes the limitations of traditional covenantal ethics In the second part of the book Lee systematically applies New Covenant ethics to the most urgent and controversial social issues of our time democratic politics economic ethics creation care criminal justice race sex and marriage medicine and war and peace Through his deep pastoral and irenic inquiries into these difficult topics Lee demonstrates a pattern of covenantal moral reasoning that undercuts the dominant neoliberal ethos of individualism and transactional relationship that more and more influences Christian moral decisions His conclusion is that as covenant has been at the heart of modern democracy human rights civil society and civic formation a renewed understanding of covenant centered in Jesus can help to heal our broken society and imperiled planet and to reorganize the fragmented human life in the era of globalization and digitization
