ads The purpose of this book is to explain how such arguments work as devices of persuasion and to develop a method for analyzing and evaluating their reasonable and fallacious uses in particular cases The book shows how such arguments share a common structure revealing several distinctive forms of argument nested within each other Based on its account of this cognitive structure the new dialectical theory presents methods for identifying analyzing and evaluating these arguments as they are used in specific cases The book is a scholarly contribution to argumentation theory It is written in an accessible style and uses many colorful and provocative examples of fear and threat appeal arguments that are suitable for classroom discussions The matters treated will be of interest to professionals and students in law critical thinking advertising speech communication informal logic cognitive science rhetoric and media studies
