It was an age of innocence and sometimes ignorance I want to memorialize what a wonderful era it was in which to be a child and to grow old It began as a chronological biography but that was not the way life is lived Stuff happens and reappears appears and disappears changes and remains the same Thus my memories and emotions became a haphazard collection of short sketches and stories Early on the decision was made to mainly include the good stuff We begin this saga with my grandmother Jenny s story the matriarch of the clan Jenny Cantrell was born October 29 1858 in a farmhouse near Red Sulphur Springs She is one half of a set of twin daughters born to James and Elizabeth Ratliff Mrs Cantrell grew up on a farm in Mercer County near Littleburg One year a young Charlestonian James M Cantrell came to Mercer County to take an interest in the mines They fell in love and at 16 years of age Jenny Ratliff became his bride McClure's Magazine ,1917 Red Book ,1993 The magazine for young adults varies Probably Yesterday Pj Hoge,2012-10 The whip cracked the frigid air and its end tore across her back leaving huge welts The whipping did not stop until the young girl managed to stumble her way into a small log shed She closed the door behind her She heard her father wedge something against the door He shouted You will stay there until you decided to obey your father What had precipitated his violent anger Her father had always been strict but never this way Her mother never made a move to come to her aid It was late afternoon and below freezing already Leisel curled up whimpering She felt the blood oozing from the lash across her neck and throat She lay there alone in the dark listening to the wind howl through the tress Leisel didn t know that a person could feel so desolate
