Canadian Criminal Cases Annotated, 1903 The Digest of Canadian Criminal Case Law George Edward McCrossan, Samuel Davies Schultz, Andrew Miller Harper, 1908 Canadian Criminal Procedure Thomas Mayne Daly, George Patterson, 1915 The Canadian Criminal Law Digest, 1920 The Canadian Criminal Justice System Nick Larsen, 1995

The administration of justice is an area of social policy that defies attempts to achieve a balance between order and the protection of the public and respect for individual rights. The media contain daily accounts of the failure of the criminal justice system to repress crime. It is within this social and legal context that this work is situated. In addition to including a range of articles in the standard areas of policing, courts, and corrections, recent articles deal with such controversial issues as aboriginal justice, the recruitment of visible minorities by Canadian police forces, and the role of women in the Canadian criminal justice system. The collection concludes with a critical assessment of the retributive model that currently serves as the philosophical underpinnings of the Canadian criminal justice system.

The Routledge Introduction to Canadian Crime Fiction Pamela Bedore, 2024-02-27. Who are the most important Canadian crime and detective writers? How do they help represent Canada as a nation? How do they distinguish Canada's approach to questions of crime detection and social justice from those of other countries? The Routledge Introduction to Canadian Crime Fiction provides a much needed investigation into how crime and detection have been and will be represented within Canada's national literature, with an attention to contemporary popular and literary texts. The book draws together a representative set of established Canadian authors who would appear in most courses on Canadian crime and detective fiction, while also introducing a few authors less established in the field. Ultimately, the book argues that crime fiction is a space of enormously productive hybridity that offers fresh new approaches to considering questions of national identity, gender, race, sexuality, and even genre.
