The American Alpine Journal, 1979 American Alpine Club, 1997-10-31      The Bold and Cold Brandon Pullan, 2016-03-18

Over the past 100 years climbers have been pushing standards in the Canadian Rockies From long alpine ridges to steep north faces the Rockies are synonymous with cutting edge ascents Peaks such as Robson Chephren Kitchener the Twins and Alberta elude the many and reward the few Many of the big faces were climbed between the 1960s and 1990 the golden age of alpinism in the Rockies The men and women who first were part of that set high standards Future alpinists read old journals and guidebooks hoping to experience what the alpine pioneers did For most the Rockies require a certain edge that comes with age humiliation and failure Perhaps the ones who drink the most whisky dream of the biggest peaks and sleep with snowballs in their hands are the ones rewarded with the momentary triumph of coming to a draw with one of these mountains This is not a guidebook Rather it is a narrative history by the people who risked life and limb to establish these long difficult and sometimes scary climbs      Land of the Ocean Mists Francis E. Caldwell, 2003 Explore the fabulous seldom visited Pacific Ocean section of Glacier Bay National Park a land of historic mysteries thundering seas and great natural beauty Includes maps and black and white and color photographs      Geological Survey of Canada, Open File 1448 ,

Fallen Giants Maurice Isserman, Stewart Angus Weaver, Dee Molenaar, 2010-01-01 In the first comprehensive history of Himalayan mountaineering in 50 years the authors offer detailed original accounts of the most significant climbs since the 1890s and they compellingly evoke the social and cultural worlds that gave rise to those expeditions      The Alpine Journal , 1924      Himalayan Dreaming Will Steffen, 2010-07-01 How did climbers from the world s flattest hottest continent become world class Himalayan mountaineers the equal of any elite mountaineer from countries with long climbing traditions and home ranges that make Australia s highest summit look like a suburban hill This book tells the story of Australian mountaineering in the great ranges of Asia from the exploits of a brash young colonial with an early British Himalayan expedition in the 1920s to the coming of age of Australian climbers in the 1980s The story goes beyond the two remarkable Australian ascents of Mt Everest in 1984 and 1988 to explore the exploits of Australian climbers in the far flung corners of the high Himalaya Above all the book presents a glimpse into the lives the successes failures tragedies motivations fears conflicts humor and compassion themselves to the ultimate limits of survival in the most spectacular and demanding mountain arena of all      Scottish Mountaineering Club Journal Scottish Mountaineering Club, 1980 Includes section Mountaineering literature      The Antarctic Mountaineering Chronology Damien Gildea, 1998      Unjustifiable Risk? Simon Thompson, 2012-03-06 To the impartial observer Britain does not appear to have any mountains Yet the British invented the sport of mountain climbing and for two periods in history British climbers led the world in the pursuit of this beautiful and dangerous obsession Unjustifiable Risk is the story of the social economic and cultural conditions that gave rise to the sport and the achievements and motives of the scientists and poets parsons and anarchists villains and judges ascetics and drunks that have shaped its development over the past two hundred years The history of climbing inevitably reflects the wider changes that have occurred in British society including class gender nationalism and war but the sport has also contributed to changing social attitudes to nature and beauty heroism and death Over the years increasing wealth leisure and mobility have gradually transformed climbing from an activity undertaken by an eccentric and privileged minority into a sub division of the leisure and tourist industry while competition improved technology and information and increasing specialisation have helped to create climbs of unimaginable difficulty at the leading edge of the sport But while much has changed even more has remained the same Today s climbers would be instantly recognisable to their Victorian predecessors with their desire to escape from the crowded complexity of urban society and willingness to take unjustifiable risk in pursuit of beauty adventure and self fulfilment Unjustifiable Risk was shortlisted for the Boardman Tasker prize in 2011
