Alta Edad Media:

La Alta Edad Media Manuel Riu,1985 La Europa de la Alta Edad Media Roger Collins,2000-05-11 Esta monografía proporciona un relato sintético pero detallado de los siglos durante los cuales Europa pasó de ser una abstracta expresión geográfica a una nueva entidad culturalmente coherente aunque políticamente dividida. Así examina cómo fueron sustituidas las estructuras sociales económicas y culturales de la Antigüedad por sus equivalentes medievales y busca definir el contexto europeo mediante el examen de aquellas fuerzas externas como las confederaciones nómadas de Asia Central y el Imperio islámico de los rabes que contribuyeron a configurarla a través de conflictos sucesivos Castilla y León en el siglo XI Alfonso Sánchez Candeira,1999 Text and Textuality in Early Medieval Iberia Graham Barrett,2023-06-20 Text and Textuality in Early Medieval Iberia is a study of the functions and conceptions of writing and reading documentation and archives and the role of literate authorities in the Christian kingdoms of the northern Iberian Peninsula between the Muslim conquest of 711 and the fall of the Islamic caliphate at Córdoba in 1031 Based on the first complete survey of the over 4 000 surviving Latin charters from the period it is an essay in the archaeology and biography of text part one concerns materiality tracing the lifecycle of charters from initiation and composition to preservation and reuse while part two addresses connectivity delineating a network of texts through painstaking identification of more than 2 000 citations of other charters secular and canon law the Bible liturgy and monastic rules Few may have been able to read or write yet the extent of textuality was broad and deep in the authority conferred upon text and the arrangements made to use it Via charter and scribe society and social arrangements came increasingly to be influenced by norms originating from a network of texts By profiling the intersection and interaction of text with society and culture Graham Barrett reconstructs textuality how the authority of the written and the structures to access it framed and constrained actions and cultural norms and proposes a new model of early medieval reading As they cited other texts charters circulated fragments of those texts we must rethink the relationship of sources and audiences to reflect fragmentary transmission in a textuality of imperfect knowledge The Visual Culture of al-Andalus in the Christian Kingdoms of Iberia Inés Monteiro,2024-10-11 This book addresses the reception of Islamic visual culture by the northern Iberian kingdoms by systematically comparing works of art from both sides and fleshing out their historical context This study includes figurative and iconographic motifs architectural forms and even the spolia from constructions and Arabic inscriptions that were embedded in Christian buildings The Islamic visual culture of al Andalus was often transformed as it was recreated by Christian hands bringing to the fore various nuances in the relationship between the two religious communities Artistic transfer was conditioned by social coexistence between Christians and Muslims both in the caliphate al Andalus and in the northern realms and military conflict To approach the different ways in which Andalusí visual culture was received in the northern kingdoms while embracing the vast diversity of case studies available this book is divided into three thematic sections Reinterpretation Appropriation and Artistic Transfers This book will be of interest to scholars working in

Historia general de la alta Edad Media José Angel García de Cortázar y Ruiz de Aguirre,1970

Reconstructing Past Monastic Life: Volume 2: Diet, Landscape and Monastic Space Lluís Lloveras,Carme Rissech,Jordi Nadal,Philip Banks,2025-07-31 Explores the organization of diet food practices water management and spatial use within historical monastic complexes and landscapes Monasticism is a form of religious life in which participants renounce worldly activities to dedicate themselves primarily to spiritual matters living in small communities subject to a set of rules and isolated from the secular world Christian monasticism which originated at the end of the 3rd century in Egypt and North Africa spread to different parts of Europe in the 6th century However it was not until the Middle Ages that monastic communities became one of the most powerful institutions in Europe Monasteries and convents played a very important role not only as centers of spirituality but also as focal points of economic technological and cultural activity This multiplicity of activities carried out alongside their religious social and political roles make monasteries spaces that can be studied from very different perspectives and that unfailingly provide essential information about our history This second of two titles originates from an international conference that took place in Barcelona in January 2024 which sought to examine different aspects related to monastic life in the past and to promote and disseminate the results obtained in the latest studies undertaken within the framework of monastic complexes and their environments These include contributions and multidisciplinary studies from archaeological bioanthropological and or documentary perspectives Specialists from different disciplines present developments on the topic of monasticism from different fields of study such as zooarchaeology bioanthropology palaeopathology archaeology history documentary disciplines archives cultural heritage etc Volume 2 focuses on diet food practices water management and the organization and use of space within monastic complexes and landscapes

La religiosidad medieval en España Francisco Javier Fernández Conde,2000

Building Legitimacy Isabel Alfonso,María Isabel Alfonso Antón,Hugh (Hugh N.) Kennedy,Julio Escalona,2004 This volume provides relevant insights into medieval political legitimation and its impact on political competition and notions of power With a main focus on medieval Castile the political discourses purporting to legitimate practices of power are discussed both as pieces of textual material and in their wider historical context

Alta Edad Media Isidro Gonzalo Bango Torviso,1989

Windows on Justice in Northern Iberia, 800–1000 Wendy Davies,2016-03-31 Although it has a rich historiography and from the late ninth century is rich in textual evidence northern Iberia has barely featured in the great debates of early medieval European history of recent generations Lying beyond the Frankish world in a peninsula more than half controlled by Muslims Spanish and Portuguese experience has seemed irrelevant to the Carolingian Empire and the political fragmentation or realignment that followed it But Spain and Portugal shared the late Roman heritage which influenced much of western Europe in the early middle ages and by the tenth century records and practice in the Christian north still shared features with parts farther east What is interesting in the wider European context is that some of the so called characteristics of the Carolingian world the public court collective judgment are as characteristic of the Iberian world The suggestion that they disappeared in the Frankish world to be replaced by private mechanisms has played a major role in debates about the changing nature of power in the central middle ages what happened in judicial courts has been central to the grand narratives of Duby and successive historians for they are a powerful lens into the very real issues of politics and power Looking at the practice of judicial courts in Europe west of Frankia allows us to think again about the nature of the public identifying all the records of that practice allows us to adjust the balance between monastic and lay activity What these show is that peasants like other lay people used the courts to seek redress and gain advantages Records were not entirely framed nor practice entirely dominated by ecclesiastical interests
