Multi-Criteria Methods for Alternative Dispute Resolution Stuart S. Nagel, Miriam K. Mills,1990-12-07 This work examines the topic of dispute resolution specifically the multi criteria approach that seeks to arrive at a conclusion that is mutually beneficial to both sides Through the use of decision aiding software the multi criteria approach can allow each side to give on various criteria that are not important to it but are important to the other side In this way a super optimum solution may even be met in which both sides receive something significantly better than they had expected Such a result is very difficult if not impossible to achieve Stuart Nagel points out in traditional single dimension dispute resolution Nagel and Mills describe the nature of multi criteria dispute resolution utilizing decision aiding software The first part of the book clarifies the general character of computer aided negotiation computer aided mediation and super optimizing dispute resolution Part two guides the reader through the use of Policy Goal Percentaging P G% decision aiding software centering on general decision making negotiation mediation and prediction of outcomes Multi criteria resolution in the context of rule making and legal policy disputes is the focus of part three where such matters as determining initial alternatives and criteria resolving deadlocks and arriving at super optimum solutions are discussed Part four emphasizes dispute resolution in the context of rule applying and litigation disputes as well as mediation at the international level and between lawyers and clients The final part deals with future applications such as computer aided mediation and group decision making with phone modems The book s combination of decision aiding software arbitration mediation and super optimum expansionist decision making brings a truly innovative approach to the topic of dispute resolution This volume should be a welcome addition to academic legal and public libraries and a valuable reference work for lawyers law students and legal professors and researchers
