The Unapologetic Quest for Success CHESTER TONEY, 2010-02-25 Two books for the price of one The epic story is the unvarnished truth of the life history of a rural boy of genuinely humble beginning who survived some of the most atrocious and devious events of life struggles including a most heinous attempt of homicide against the lives of his entire family but who still grew up to become a medical doctor associated with international record breaking fame thus becoming one of the most illustrious and popular icons in his country The Unapologetic quest for success is a read for all however it is the fervent wish of the author that this story will serve as an inspiration beacon for all those youths who would share similar life experiences to his The book is an emotion pack reader Despite the authentic nature of the story the contents of its chapters are pregnant with the sort of excitements and mood swings that I am sure would keep its readers glued to its pages His poetic side complements the story but also brings out the deeper thoughts of the author A must read Ardon Nelson poet song writer literary and performing arts critic consultant in urban planning St Vincent and the Grenadines
