Peter J. Shave,2005-12-01 The Planet Deorl had exploded although the event was both predicted and expected the timing was not The final actions of politicians dictated that a fortunate few escaped A small craft which survived the Planet s destruction is limping through space instruments severely damaged and fuel almost expended The optimism and faith of its captain are also practically exhausted the appearance of two planets presents an unexpected choice A decision is made and they crash land on the first planet which initially appears to offer salvation and the opportunity to establish a colony An introduction to the group of survivors and a number of highly personal situations although outside of contemporary experience contains sufficient familiarity to place the reader in situ and to perhaps question their own faith and morality Federal Register ,1995-01-18 The Indian Law Reports ,1927 The Journal of Jurisprudence ,1885 *book I.
