Alternative Schemes Of Financing Training:

Alternative Schemes of Financing Training Vladimir Gasskov, 1994 There is growing interest worldwide in reforming national systems of financing technical and vocational education and training TVET Based on examples of countries and industries with innovative arrangements this book covers many new practices both successful and unsuccessful public funding schemes tax incentives and co financing It should be of particular interest to policy makers wishing to make better decisions on funding TVET OECD Reviews of Vocational Education and Training A Skills beyond School Review of South Africa Field Simon, Musset Pauline, Álvarez-Galván José-Luis, 2014-11-18 Vocational education and training VET programmes are facing rapid change and intensifying challenges How can employers and unions be engaged How can workbased learning be used How can teachers and trainers be effectively prepared How should Education Finance, Equality, and Equity Iris BenDavid-Hadar, 2018-08-13 This volume revisits educational equality and equity issues especially in education finance related topics consisting of 15 chapters and organized in two parts The first part of the volume entitled Education Finance focuses on equity aspects of resource allocation and its influence on education The second part entitled Educational Equality and Equity focuses on the conceptualization and the measurements of educational inequity and inequality with special emphasis on the cost of inequality The field of education finance has been significantly influencing policy makers in many countries in recent years This volume is focused on equity and equality in education finance in an international frame This book would be of interest to 1 scholars at the fields of education finance economics of education and educational policy 2 graduate students at the course of school finance or economics of education and 3 local and global policy makers at the fields of education policy and education finance Good Practice in Technical and Vocational Education and Training Asian Development Bank, 2009-11-01 Many developing member countries DMCs of the Asian Development Bank ADB suffer from a shortage of qualified workers Technical and vocational education and training TVET and skills development often provide a slow inflexible inadequate and inefficient response to the needs of labor markets This good practice guide supports ADB s education sector staff and other planners in their dialogue with governments and other stakeholders of education in the DMCs aimed at analyzing the TVET sector and its directions The publication highlights strategic questions and presents investment design issues including the strengths and weaknesses of different forms of training and financing It discusses the lessons learned from ADB s experiences in the sector and their implications for future TVET projects Checklists provide a practical tool for evaluating proposed investments Vocational Education and Training Institutions Vladimir Gasskov, 2006 Effective public governance and management continue to be key to the vocational education and training VET sector This Handbook and CD ROM suggests that the VET institutions responsiveness to market demand and their ability to operate flexibly and cost efficiently are strongly determined by the degree of their management financial and academic autonomy as well as by the competence of their staff Based on experiences in Australia New Zealand and the United Kingdom the

Handbook is not country specific but provides general approaches to the management of VET institutions It is accompanied by a CD ROM that provides summaries of national management practices in the VET sector and of national policies reports and legal documents as well as real life management instruments applied by VET institutions The Handbook consists of 11 modules with 43 learning units while the CD ROM provides access to more than 400 documents The Handbook and CD ROM are intended as self learning materials for VET managers as resource material for management development programmes in the VET sector and as an outline for performance review of VET institutions

Realising the Demographic Dividend

Santosh Mehrotra,2015-12-10 This book discusses policies to achieve inclusive growth in India and realise the demographic dividend which will end by 2040 when India will become an aging society India is the world s fastest growing large economy but jobs are not growing equally rapidly The size of India s youth workforce is worrying and the largely informal workforce is not covered by social insurance Universal elementary education despite the Right to Education Act 2009 is yet to be achieved Health outcomes have improved only slowly over the years Furthermore sanitation still remains a very serious problem As an economist and former policy maker the author discusses specific policies to address these problems well beyond what is currently being practised The book also deals with the governance issues that need to be addressed before inclusive growth can be attained
