Always Faithful:

Always Faithful William W. Putney, 2002-02-22 Twenty three year old Bill Putney enlisted in the Marines in 1943 in search of military glory Instead Putney a licensed veterinarian was relegated to the Dog Corps Putney became the Commanding Officer of the 3rd War Dog Platoon and later the chief veterinarian and C O of the War Dog Training School at Camp Lejeune North Carolina At Lejeune Putney helped train America s dogs for war in the Pacific He later led them into combat in the invasion of Guam in 1944 the first liberation of American soil in World War II Always Faithful is the story of the dogs that fought in Guam and across the islands of the Pacific a celebration of the four legged soldiers that Putney both commanded and followed It is a tale of immense courage but also of incredible sacrifice On Guam as on islands such as Iwo Jima and Okinawa the Japanese were infamously tenacious refusing to surrender as long as there was a hole left to crawl into Rooting out the enemy was an awful painstaking job To this task Putney s dogs were well suited Used for scouting attack carrying messages detecting mines and also as guards the war dogs were so well trained that they could locate nonmetallic mines that had been buried for months deep underground their hearing was so precise they could detect enemy trip wires by listening to them sing in the breeze Their record in action was perfect More than 550 patrols on the island of Guam were led by dogs not one patrol was ambushed But for this success the dogs always out in front paid a terrible price Although Putney worked feverishly as veterinarian and C O to keep the dogs alive many were lost After the war Putney returned home only to discover that the dogs he had served with were being put to sleep These dogs were ex household pets recruited from civilians with the promise that they would someday be returned Outraged Putney fought for the dogs right to go home He won and headed the overwhelmingly successful program to detrain the dogs so they could return to their families Alas quickly learned the lesson was quickly forgotten The dogs of Korea and Vietnam did not come home Then in the final days of his administration President Clinton signed into law a bill that allows military handlers to bring home the dogs with which they work Once again Putney was at the front of the charge For anyone who has ever read Old Yeller or the books of Jack London here is a real life story never before told that beats any fiction At once wistful tribute and stirring adventure Always Faithful describes what may be the greatest man dog effort of all time It will both astound and move you Always Faithful Owen Linlithgow Conner, 2024 This year the Marine Corps celebrates 250 years of achievement and history In commemoration of this event the curators of the National Museum of the Marine Corps are dedicating a special exhibit to highlight rare and previously unseen artifacts from the museum s permanent collection The artifacts and stories presented here are among the best documented pieces from the museum s collection Some feature the personal tales of individual Marines while others are more representative of significant events or relate to broader Marine Corps traditions This exhibit is not intended to rank or rate the top artifacts of Marine Corps history Rather the purpose of the exhibit is to honor and celebrate the 250th anniversary of the Corps through a single lens of the museum s collection This Is My Story Theron J.
