The African Meets the Black American Kwame A. Insaadoo, 2006-09-28 The African has been separated from his Black American brothers and sisters since the dawn of the Trans Atlantic Slave Trade Millions of Africans were forcibly ejected from their native soil separated from their loved ones their mothers fathers sisters brothers and torn from the lives they once knew and transplanted into a new world Essentially the black American has become a new person in a new world with a unique experience After hundreds of years in the new world coupled with their unique experience how do they view or see or relate or perceive or better yet interact with their African kith and kin they left on the African continent who are now voluntarily joining them in America in exodus proportions fleeing the life of grinding poverty deprivation hunger dictatorships helplessness and all kinds of diseases The authors spent more than twenty five years trying to find out answers to these questions

Hollywood North Mike Gasher, 2002 British Columbia s billion dollar film industry trails behind only those of California and New York This book recounts the story of British Columbia s rapid rise from relative obscurity in the film world to its current status as Hollywood North Gasher positions the industry as a model for commercial film production in the twenty first century one strongly shaped by a perception of cinema as a medium not of culture but of regional industrial development He addresses the specific economic and geographic factors that contribute to the province s success such as the low Canadian dollar and BC s proximity to Los Angeles Hollywood North is an important book that brings into focus the tension between globalization and localization in the film industry
