California Impressionists:

California Impressionists Susan Landauer, Georgia Museum of Art, Irvine Museum, Atlanta Committee for the Olympic Games, 1996 The years around the turn of the century were a dynamic time in American art Different and seemingly contradictory movements were evolving and the dominant style that emerged during this period was Impressionism Based in part on the broken brushwork and high keyed palette of Claude Monet it was a form especially suited to the dramatic landscape and shimmering light of California This book celebrates forty Impressionist painters who worked in California from 1900 through the beginning of the Great Depression it includes widely recognized California artists such as Maurice Braun and Guy Rose less well known artists such as Mary DeNeale Morgan and Donna Schuster and eastern painters who worked briefly in the region such as Childe Hassam and William Merritt Chase The contributors essays examine the socioeconomic forces that shaped this art movement as well as the ways in which the art reflected California s self cultivated image as a healthful sun splashed arcadia California Impressionism William H. Gerdts, Will South, 1998 Lavishly illustrated meticulously researched and gracefully written this definitive study of California s distinctive style of impressionism surveys the movement s sources abroad its most influential artists and the critical responses to the style 248 illustrations 201 in color
