Call To Conversion Recovering The Gospel For These Times:

The Call to Conversion Jim Wallis,1992 Cultivating Missional Communities Inagrace T. Dietterich,2006-06-01 This study resource focuses upon Christian practices those behaviors by which congregations shape teach train equip cultivate their identity vision and mission as Christian communities Thus baptism Eucharist forgiveness ministry discernment and worship are practices through which a people are formed in a distinctive way of life Questions for reflection and discussion are included to stimulate use within groups for study learning and formation Announcing the Reign of God Mortimer Arias,2001-01-22 In Announcing the Reign of God Mortimer Arias proposes that the time has come to recover in its fullness the biblical perspective of the kingdom for the mission of the church today and particularly for our evangelistic witness

Liberating News Orlando E. Costas,2002-04-22 This book approaches the topic of contextual evangelization from the standpoint of the poor the powerless and the oppressed It is as Orlando Costas explains written against the backdrop of the radical evangelical tradition in dialogue with other streams of the larger ecumenical church Costas begins by exploring the biblical roots of contextual evangelization focusing on two models The Old Testament model is illustrated by believers like Esther who in her heroic liberation of her people in politically difficult circumstances showed us how to come to the aid of those who live on the margins of society The New Testament model is illustrated first and foremost by Christ who showed us how to minister to the marginalized by operating from the Galilean periphery On what does one base contextual evangelization On the Trinity which Costas defines as community the foundation for evangelization as a communal event The substance of evangelization is the apostolic message of the cross which announces God's gift of life through the suffering and death of Christ If we believe that message we look forward to life in God's kingdom even as we work and pray for justice and peace Costas accordingly views conversion not as a single event but rather as a continual transformative process that involves a passage from self absorption to active communal commitment Costas's creative sound blend of evangelical commitment and enlightened social thinking recommends this book to well informed laypeople as well as pastors theologians and scholars Churches That Make a Difference Ronald J. Sider,Philip N. Olson,Heidi Rolland Unruh,2002-04-01

Churches That Make a Difference Ronald J. Sider,Philip N. Olson,Heidi Rolland Unruh,2002-04-01 Churches over the past generations have been weakened by a failure to meet both the physical and spiritual needs of their communities Many have adopted a narrow vision focusing on only one aspect of ministry But in today's environment of faith based opportunities many Christians are eager to start reaching out to their world with both Good News and good works and therefore they are searching for appropriate ways to integrate both into their ministry In Churches That Make a Difference best selling author Ron Sider and his coauthors give those involved in community outreach a comprehensive resource for developing holistic ministry a balance of evangelism and social outreach Illustrations and helpful organizational tips detail the how to's of an effective holistic ministry Case studies that show how different churches across the United States reach out to their communities provide a variety of ideas and practical applications User friendly tools are included as well for congregational studies surveys evaluations and community assessments The authors draw on extensive experience with church ministries and faith based organizations as they share the life changing vision and biblical mandate for living the whole gospel Church leaders will be encouraged in their process of developing and maintaining a holistic ministry and local churches will rediscover a passion for loving the whole person the way Jesus did God's Politics Jim Wallis,2009-10-13 Since when did believing in God and having moral values make you pro war pro wealth and pro Republican And since when did promoting and pursuing a progressive social agenda with a concern for economic security health care and educational opportunity mean you had to put aside faith in God While the Right in America has hijacked the language of faith to prop up its political agenda the Left hasn't done much better largely ignoring faith and continually separating moral discourse and personal ethics from public policy The consequence is a false choice between ideological religion and soulless politics In the New York Times bestseller God's Politics Jim Wallis argues that separation of church and state does not require banishing moral and religious values from public discourse In fact the United States depends on such values and vision to shape our politics something that was recognized by the nation's founders Jim Wallis is the founder and editor of Sojourner magazine and the president and convener of Call to Renewal a national federation of churches and faith based organizations who work with the government to overcome poverty and revitalize American politics Time magazine named Wallis one of the 50 Faces for America's Future and he has been a Visiting Fellow at Harvard's Kennedy School of Government His books include Faith Works The Soul of Politics and Call to Conversion It is a reminder that Martin Luther King may have had a bible in one hand but he had the Constitution in the other New York Times Book Review Commonweal,1982 Missionalia,1988 Contains abstracts of missiological contributions book reviews and articles An Exposition of the Old Testament ... By John Gill. [Edited by David Alfred Doudney. Sager,1990 Rich Christians in an Age of Hunger Ronald J. Sider,1984 Do you want to make a true difference in the world Dr Ron Sider does He has since before he first published Rich Christians in an Age of Hunger in 1978 Despite a dramatic reduction in world hunger since then 34 000 children still die daily of starvation and preventable disease and 1 3 billion people worldwide remain in abject poverty So the professor of theology went back to re-examine the issues by twenty first century standards Finding that Conservatives blame morally reprehensible individual choices and Liberals blame constrictive social and economic policy Dr Sider finds himself agreeing with both sides In this new look at an age old problem he offers not only a detailed explanation of the causes but also a comprehensive series of practical solutions in the hopes that Christians like him will choose to make a difference Evangelism on the Cutting Edge Robert E. Coleman,1986 Why Settle for More and Miss the Best?
